FIRST EDITION.

TWELVE O'CLOCK M.

FORTIETH CONGRESS.

Re-assembling of the Impeachment Court—The President acquitted on the Second and Third Articles, after which the Court Adjourns without Day—House Proceedings—Wooley, the Contumacious Witness, brought to the Bar for Contempt, and Placed in Custody.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

WASHINGTON, May 26, 1868.

SENATE.

The Senate met in open session at noon. The Republican Senators had been in consultation a couple of hours before, on the question whether the vote on impeachment should be taken to-day. The proceedings opened with prayer by the Chaplain.

The CHIEF JUSTICE took his seat as presiding officer, and proclamation in the usual form was made by the Sergeant-at Arms.

Senator WILLIAMS offered the following order:

Resolved, That the resolution heretofore adopted as to the order of reading and voting on the articles of impeachment be rescinded.

Senator JOHNSON asked the effect of the order?

The CHIEF JUSTICE said the question was in the nature of debate, and debate was not in order then.

The same Senator called for the reading of the order to which this order referred.

The CHIEF JUSTICE remarked that the first business in order was to notify the House of Representatives that the Senate was ready to receive them at the bar, and that after that the course would be to read the journal of the last day's proceedings. If objections were made, the order offered by Senator Williams would not be in order until both these things were done.

Senator JOHNSON made the necessary objection.

Then, on motion of Senator EDMUNDS, it was ordered that the House be notified that the Senate is now ready to proceed with impeachment.

Soon after the Sergeant-at-Arms announced the Managers on the part of the House. They took their seats, Mr. Stevens not among them. The President was represented by Messrs. Stanbery, Evarts and Nelson.

The House having been announced at the bar, entered in Committee of the Whole, headed by its Chairman. The Speaker took his usual seat beside Senator Morrill, of Maine.

By this time every seat in the galleries was occupied. Every Senator was in his seat.

The journal of the last meeting was read and then the resolution offered by Senator WILLIAMS came up.

Senator BUCKALEW said if the resolution required unanimous consent for its consideration to-day, he would object.

The CHIEF JUSTICE stated his opinion that it did, and that a single objection would lay the resolution over till to-morrow, but he would submit the question to the Senate.

A vote was taken whether the resolution be received and acted on now, and it was decided in the affirmative.

Nays—Messrs. Anthony, Bayard, Buckalew, Corbett, Davis, Dixon, Doolittle, Edmunds, Ferry, Fessenden, Fowler, Grimes, Henderson, Hendricks, Johnson, M'Creery, Morrill, Vermont, Norton, Patterson, New Hampshire, Patterson, Tennessee, Saulsbury, Trumbull, Van Winkle and Vickers—24.

Senator WILLIAMS modified his motion to rescind all orders relating to the time of voting.

Senator TRUMBULL made the point of order, that an order could not be rescinded which had already been partly executed, and that a change of the rule could not be made without one day's notice.

Senator EDMUNDS moved the Senate withdraw for consultation. Not agreed to.

The CHIEF JUSTICE submitted the question of sustaining the point of order and it was not sustained—24 to 30.

Senator CONKLING offered as a substitute for Senator Williams' resolution an order, that the Senate sitting for the trial of Andrew Johnson, President of the United States, will now proceed in the manner prescribed by the rule in that behalf to vote in their order on the remaining articles of impeachment.

The vote on the amendment resulted—yeas 28, nays 28, as follows:

Nays—Messrs. Anthony, Cameron, Cattell, Chandler, Conness, Corbett, Cragin, Drake, Edmunds, Frelinghuysen, Harlan, Howard, Howe, Morrill, (Me.,) Nye, Pomeroy, Ramsay, Ross, Sherman, Sprague, Stewart, Sumner, Thayer, Tipton, Wade, Williams, Wilson, Yates—28.

Senator MORRILL (Me.) then moved the Court adjourn until the 23d of June.

The CHIEF JUSTICE reaffirmed his opinion that such a motion was not in order, and submitted the question to the Senate, which decided it to be in order—vote 35 to 18.

The question recurred on Senator MORRILL'S motion to adjourn to the 23d of June, but Senator HOSS moved to amend by substituting September 1st.

The amendment was lost—15 to 39.

The vote on Senator Morrill's motion resulted in a tie and the Chief Justice decided it lost.

Senator WILLIAMS then moved to proceed to vote on the second article, which was agreed to.

Result: guilty, 35; not guilty, 19.

Senators Fessenden, Fowler, Grimes, Henderson, Ross, Trumbull and Van Winkle voted not guilty. The rest as before.

The vote was afterwards taken on the third Article of Impeachment with precisely the same result.

At ten minutes before two, the vote on the third article having been announced, Senator WILLIAMS moved the Senate, sitting as a Court of Impeachment, do now adjourn sine die.

The vote having been taken by yeas and nays, the CHIEF JUSTICE said that before announcing the vote he would remind the Senators that the twenty-second rule provided that if impeachment should not on any article presented be sustained by a vote of two-thirds of the members present, a judgment of acquittal should be entered. He added, after some interruption by Senators, that if there were no objections the clerk would enter the judgment of acquittal according to the rule.

Senator CONKLING misunderstanding the proposition of the Chief Justice, suggested that the rule required a vote to be taken on each article before judgment could be entered.

The CHIEF JUSTICE assented, but said he had reference simply to those articles on which the vote had been taken.

There being no objection, the CHIEF JUSTICE directed judgment of acquittal to be entered on the second, third and eleventh articles of Impeachment.

The vote on adjournment sine die was then announced—yeas 34, nays 16, as follows:

Nays—Messrs. Bayard, Buckalew, Davis, Dixon, Doolittle, Fowler, Henderson, Hendricks, Johnson, McCreery, Norton, Patterson (Tenn.,) Ross, Saulsbury, Trumbull, Vickers.

The CHIEF JUSTICE then declared at ten minutes before 2 o'clock, that the Senate, sitting as a Court of Impeachment for the trial of Andrew Johnson on articles of impeachment, stood adjourned without day.

There was no perceptible manifestation of feeling on the part of spectators.

The members of the House then returned to their chamber and the galleries were in a few minutes almost deserted.

Senator ANTHONY rose to a personal explanation and stigmatized the reports in regard to the Chief Justice endeavoring to influence him in the matter of impeachment as a malignant falsehood.

Senator WILLEY made a statement of a similar kind.

Senator JOHNSON contradicted the story in regard to dining with the Chief Justice in company with other Senators.

Senator FESSENDEN denied the truth of the story in regard to a consultation between him and the Chief Justice and others in regard to the formation of a new party, saying the Chief Justice knew him to be in favor of the present distinguished nominees of the Republican party.

At twenty minutes before three o'clock the Senate adjourned.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

Mr. CHANLER offered a resolution directing the President to inform the House why a competent naval force is not cruising in the neighborhood of Port-Au-Prince to protect the flag and citizens of the United States from insult and outrage on the part of the Government of Hayti in the last revolution there. Adopted.

The second clause of the resolution thanking British Admiral Philemon for extending protection was referred to the Foreign Committee.

The Sergeant-at-Arms appeared at the bar with Mr. Woolley.

Mr. BUTLER desired the Speaker should ask the witness whether he was now ready to testify fully and fairly.

Mr. ELDRIDGE insisted that was not the course. The question was whether he had any excuse to offer.

The SPEAKER directed the Clerk to read some proceedings.

The question was not disposed of when the House proceeded to the Senate chamber,

When the House returned to their hall, a resolution was adopted requiring Mr. Wooley to appear at the bar and give his reasons for not answering the questions, and asking whether he was now prepared to answer proper questions.

The questions were read to him by the Speaker, when he presented a written protest, saying he was prepared to answer proper questions, and asserting that he had drawn no money to be used in the matter of impeachment.

Mr. ELDRIDGE raised a question, that the Court having adjourned sine die, the functions of the Managers had ceased.

The SPEAKER acknowledged this, but said the question before the House was one of contempt.

Mr. BUTLER offered a resolution concerning the existence of the Impeachment Managers. Adopted—90 to 30.

Mr. BOUTWELL offered a resolution that Mr. Woolley be detained in close custody until he purges himself of the contempt. Adopted—81 against 27.

Mr. Wooley was then taken into custody by the Sergeant-at-Arms.

Mr. BOYER offered a resolution that two members of the House who voted against impeachment of the President be added by appointment of the Speaker to the Committee authorized to investigate the alleged corrupt means to influence the administration of the Senate upon the impeachment of the President.

On motion of Mr. BUTTLER tabled—Yeas 60, nays 5.

Mr. BANKS offered a resolution requesting the President to inform the House what measures have been taken to obtain indemnities from the Spanish government for spoliation on the commerce of American citizens during the late war with Central American Republics, and to transmit any correspondence that has taken place on the subject, between the United States and the Spanish government. Adopted.

The House then went into Committee of the Whole, and proceeded to the consideration of the Indian Appropriation Bill.

Mr. BUTLER moved the first reading of the bill, which occupied six hundred and thirty pages, be dispened with. Agreed to and the House adjourned.

Presbyterian General Assembly.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.

BALTIMORE, May 26.—At the Presbyterian General Assembly to-day, the vote on the report of the Committee on bills and overtures, was reconsidered and a resolution inserted recommending members of the church to patronize the Presbyterian schools and colleges.

A report of the Committee on Sabbath Schools was presented, showing that there are 1,309 churches, 853 ministers, 80,513 members, and 319 Sabbath Schools in the jurisdiction of the Assembly.

Pending the discussion of a motion to appoint a Committee to act with the standing Committee of the Assembly on Sunday Schools, the Assembly adjourned.

CHARLESTON, May 26.—General Canby to-day issued an order removing thirteen of the eighteen Aldermen of Charleston, and appointing persons to fill the vacancies. Under the new organization there will be seven negroes in the Board.

Trial of Jeff. Davis.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

RICHMOND, May 26.—Chief Justice Chase having assented to June 3d as the day for commencing the trial of Jefferson Davis, if the Impeachment trial would be finished by that time, it is understood to-day that the trial will certainly take place then.

SECOND EDITION.

FOUR O'CLOCK A. M.

THE CAPITAL.

Secretary Stanton Relinquishes the War Office—The Protest of Mr. Wooley, the Witness—The President Congratulated.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

WASHINGTON, May 26, 1868.

SECRETARY STANTON VACATES THE WAR OFFICE.

The following letter was received by the President between three or four o'clock:

War Department, Washington, May 26, 1868.—SIR: The resolution of the Senate of the United States of the 21st of February last, declaring that the President has no power to remove the Secretary of War and designate any other officer to perform the duties of that office ad interim, having this day failed to be supported by two-thirds of the Senate present and voting on the articles of impeachment preferred against you by the House of Representatives, I have relinquished the charge of the War Department, and have left the same, and the books, archives, papers and property in my custody as Secretary of War in the care of Brevet Major General Townsend, the senior Adjutant General, subject to your directions.

[Signed] EDWIN M. STANTON,
To the President: Secretary of War.

MR. WOOLLEY'S PROTEST.

The following is the written protest of Mr. Woolley, presented to the House before they went to the Senate Chamber:

To the Honorable House of Representatives of the United States:—Charles W. Woolley respectfully presents that he was on the evening of yesterday, the 25th inst., between the hours of seven and nine o'clock, taken in custody by the Sergeant-at-Arms of the House; that he has not been informed of the cause of his arrest, otherwise than by having read to him the resolution of the House, by direction whereof the warrant for his arrest was issued, and that he has been unable to obtain a copy of the report of the Managers to which such resolution refers as containing the specific inquiries put to him in the investigation, the refusal to answer which is made the basis of the charge of contempt on which he is now arranged at the bar of the House. The te ms of said resolution in said report is referred to as containing specifications against him, and without opportunity to examine he is unable to answer in the premises. Protesting therefore he has in nothing been guilty of contempt of this honorable body, but that he has demeaned himself in regard thereto with proper courtesy and he has fully answered all enquiries of him by the Committee of Managers in regard to those matters with the investigation of which said Committee was charged by the House, he himself submits that he be allowed such reasonable time as the House may seem proper and just to examine said report and consult with counsel, in order that he may submit a full and explicit answer in the premises.

[Signed] C. W. WOOLLEY.

THE PRESIDENT CONGRATULATED.

A large number of persons called at the White House this afternoon and evening to congratulate the President on his acquittal. The visitors included Senators, Representatives and heads of departments. The reception was continued until a late hour.

COLORED MAN FOR COUNCIL.

The Republicans of the First ward have nominated a colored man for Council, having previously nominated him for Alderman.

METHODISM.

Quadrennial Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

CHICAGO, May 26.—The Conference reassembled at three o'clock. The Committee on Revisals recommended that the Mission Committee be members of the Quarterly Conferences. Lost. The clause of the Discipline which makes the Mission Committee members of the Quarterly Conference was then stricken out.

From the same Committee a recommendation that the Discipline be so changed as to make it the duty of pastors when they issue letters of dismission to notify the pastor of the church within whose boundaries the dismissed party may take up his residence, was adopted.

From the same Committee a report was presented to so amend the discipline that divorced persons who marry while the husband or wife is living are not guilty of adultery or fornication, but shall be dealt with as in other cases of immorality. It was discussed for some time and recommitted. Adjourned.

CITY AND SUBURBAN.

DESECRATION OF THE DEAD.

The Methodist Grave Yard Outrage—Meeting of the Lot Holders—They Protest Against the Action of the Commissioners.

The Methodist grave yard in the Seventh ward having ceased to be a source of revenue to the corporation by which it was controlled, in consequence of the lots all having been disposed of, and there being outstanding bills for grading and paving against it to the amount of $3,000, the corporate body having it in charge, doubtless seeing a speculation in it, obtained an act of Assembly authorising the removal of the dead, the sale of the property, and appointing three Commissioners to carry out its provisions. The law stipulates that that the dead are to be removed and decently interred in an incorporated burial ground adjacent to the city, after which the Commissioners are authorized to compromise with the lot holders, and after defraying the expenses thus incurred and liquidating all outstanding bills against the property, to make return of the remainder of the proceeds to the corporation to which the property originally belonged. Pursuant to this act the Commissioners commenced operations last fall; but, it appears, instead of giving decent interment to the bodies taken up, ground was purchased in the Minersville cemetery and a hole, thirty-two by forty-two feet, was dug in which about five thousand bodies were deposited. The lot owners very naturally protested against this unchristian like proceeding and insisted upon the Commissioners acting in conformity to the law, and in order to take action relative to the matter an indignation meeting of the lot holders was held some two weeks since, at which Mr. J. D. Gardiner presided and James McKain acted as Secretary. The action of the Commissioners was fully canvassed at the meeting and a Committee of three, cunsisting of Messrs. D. Gardiner, George Wilson and W. H. Chapman was appointed to confer with the Commissioners, and make some amicable arrangement with them with regard to removing the bodies yet remaining there, and compromising with the lot owners, after which the meeting adjourned to meet at the Seventh ward school house, Tuesday evening, the 26th inst., at 7½ o'clock, to hear the report of the Committee.

Pursuant to adjournment the lot holders and others interested met at the time and place named, and was called to order by the chairman.

The Secretary then read the minutes of the preceding meeting, which were approved.

Mr. Gardiner, Chairman of the Committee appointed to confer with the Commissioners, made a verbal report. He stated that the Committee have made several propositions which to them seemed fair, but that they have been unable to receive anything definite from the Commissioners. He said the Commissioners objected to making any arrangements, least they might in some way become personally responsible to the corporation or parties interested and have to pay money out of their own pockets. The Committee he stated had agreed to take the ground off the hands of the Commissioners, and pay all legal claims against it, including the expenses incurred in the removal of the five thousand bedies to the Minersville Cemetery, which proposition had been rejected by the Commissioners. The only proposition made by the Commissioners was that lot owners might procure lots in any of the incorporated cemeteries adjacent to the city, and they would pay for them, provided they could be purchased upon terms that would meet the approval of a majority of the Committee.

In order to effect an arrangment of this the Committee visited Hilldale cemetery and the Lutheran cemetery. In the former he stated they could procure lots of the same dimensions as those of the old burying ground for thirty-five dollars, and in the latter for twenty-seven dollars, by taking fifty or one hundred lots. Several other propositions had been made by the Committee, but none of them were accepted by the Committee.

The report was accepted and the Committee retained.

Mr. Gardner tendered his resignation as a member of the Committee, which was accepted, and Captain Andrew Miller appointed in his place.

Mr. Dickson wished to know what right that corporation had to dispose of ground which did not belong to them. The burying ground, he said, belonged to the lot owners.

Mr. Kincaid, one of the Commissioners, being present, made some explanations, in which he stated that he did not approve of the action of Mr. Parker, aCommissioner, who it appears has charge of the work of removing the dead.

Mr. White moved that the Commissioners be enjoined from further operations until such time as a satisfactory arrangement could be made with the lot owners. Adopted.

Mr. Chapman moved that the lot owners agree to take $30 each for these lots, and that they remove their own dead. The motion was lost.

Mr. Flynn moved that when the meeting adjourn it be to meet Tuesday, June 2d, at 7 p. m., to hear the report of the Committee.

The motion was amended by adding "and the Commissioners be requested to discontinue operations until that time." Adopted as amended.

The Chairman stated that at the previous meeting a resolution was adopted requesting the payment of one dollar each by the lot holders to defray expenses, and that it could now be paid to the Secretary who would act as Treasurer.

After the money had been paid the meeting adjourned.

Accident.—Yesterday afternoon Patrick McCann, a young man employed in the printing office of Errett, Anderson & Co., met with a painful accident. Treasurer—James H. Wright. Secretary—D. P. Corwin. Board—James Verner, James H. Wright, Richard Hays, J. H. Jones, Alexander Speer.

Remarkable Attempt at Suicide.

A desperate attempt at self-destruction was made yesterday morning by a man named Isaac Y. Little, in Gallinger's pawn office, Penn street, Fifth ward. At the time of his rash deed, Little was under arrest for false pretenses, and had gone to the pawn broker's shop on the pretense of getting money to settle the claim against him. Yesterday morning the prosecutors were informed that Little had been arrested, and they came to Alderman McMaster's office to attend the hearing. After a conversation with the prisoner they agreed to withdraw their suits, provided the prisoner would pay off their claims. He agreed to do this, and obtained permission to go with an officer to procure the money. In company with officer Moon he went to Gallinger's pawn shop, corner of Penn and O'Hara streets, representing that he had pawned a pair of pistols there, on which he could raise the necessary money. Officer O'Connor also went with him to the place, having two commitments for him from Alderman McMasters. Arrived at the pawnbroker's, Little told Mr. Gallinger that he wished to see those pistols, and accompanied him to the back room where they were. The officers stood at the door of the back room, while the proprietor took down the pistols. Little said he wished to procure more money on those pistols. He was informed that he could get no more money, when he snatched one of the pistols from Mr. Gallinger's hand, and springing to the other side of the room, exclaimed, "Now, shoot me or I'll shoot myself," and placed the pistol against his right breast. Both the officers immediately sprang to his side, but before they reached him he had fired, and they caught him as he was falling. As they took hold of him he said: "This is what I came here to do, and I've done it." He was immediately laid upon a table, and Drs. John Dickson and H. H. Clark were called in. Examination showed that the ball had extered the right breast about an inch above the nipple, and had passed transversely through the body, lodging in the muscles near the spine. Little blood flowed externally, but the internal bleeding was very profuse, and the physicians immediately decided that there was no possibility of the patient surviving. The weapon with which the shooting was done was one of the smallest of Smith & Wesson's revolvers. The deed was done at about half-past ten o'clock, and a little before noon the sufferer was conveyed to the Homeopathic hospital on Second street. He finally expressed regret for what he had done, but said he felt no remorse. He "wished he could pray, but could not."

United States District Court—Judge McCandless.

The case of Jackson E. Rousch, indicted for passing counterfeit money, which has been on trial for some days past, was submitted to the jury yesterday, after the charge of the Court. The jury will return a verdict this morning.

The next case taken up was that of the United States vs. Susan Geible. The defendant is a resident of Lock Haven, Pa., and was indicted for passing counterfeit money. The jury found a verdict of not guilty, and the defendant was discharged by proclamation.

Benjamin Breen and Benjamin Ripley were arraigned on an indictment charging them with passing counterfeit money. The parties were residents of Bellefonte, Center county. The case is still on trial. District Attorney Carnahan appears for the United States and W. D. Moore, Esq., for the defense.

In the bankruptcy branch, final discharges were granted and certificates awarded to Henry M. Atwood, Pittsburgh; Daniel Bushnell, Pittsburgh; James M. Kirby, Allegheny.

A petition for final discharge was filed by Alvin Z. Randall, of Erie county. The usual orders were made.

A petition was filed by John Phillips & Co., asking that William Shea, of Luzerne county, be declared a bankrupt, for reasons set forth at length. An order was granted on the debtor, returnable June 5th, to show cause why the request should not be granted.

Water Loan.—The water loan bonds of the city of Pittsburgh are now ready for delivery at the office of Controller Steel, on Fourth street. Parties who have subscribed for the loan will please call and take out their bonds, and those desirous of investing in so admirable and desirable a security will receive the bonds forthwith on application.

SENATOR WILLEY, of West Virginia, who voted on the eleventh article of impeachment, took advantage of the pause in public business to visit his home, at Morgantown, on the 20th. He was serenaded by his Republican neighbors and congratulated upon his "firm stand for the law and the people." The Post says:

"The Senator appeared, amidst the cheers of his friends, and after thanking them for their manifestations, addressed them in a brief but excellent speech. He referred to the impeachment trial briefly, but earnestly, and gave his fellow-citizens to understand that he would vote for the law and for the right, let come what would. He spoke of the great and good soldier, General Grant, who was again leading the Republican hosts to victory through the camp of the rebel Democracy, and showed up the stay-at-home Jeff. Davis Democrats in our midst in their true light. Indeed, to recount all the good things said by Senator Willey would occupy columns.

—It is stated on the authority of a letter from a Senator to the Clerk of the Bankruptcy Court at New York, that the Judiciary Committee will not report the House bill extending the time for debtors whose assets will not pay fifty per cent. of debts to file petitions in the bankruptcy till the first of January.

The Pittsburgh Gazette.

THE VALLEY OF THE ALLEGHENY.

To the Editors of the Pittsburgh Gazette:

GENTLEMEN—Last week I made a trip over the Allegheny Valley Railroad from this city to Venango city, (directly across the river from Oil City,) which is the northern terminus, for the present, of that road, and propose giving you the result of my observations.

Some twelve or fourteen years ago the A. V. R. R. was completed from Pittsburgh to Kittanning, forty-five miles; but, owing to adverse circumstances, the company was unable to push it any further for a number of years. It was, however, a very useful local thoroughfare, and its early friends never for a moment doubted that sooner or later, it would be pushed on, and that their original views and expectations would be realized.

About three years ago, under the vigorous administration of Wm. Phillips, Esq., the present President, the road was pushed on to the mouth of the Mahoning, an important point ten miles above Kittanning, where several leading roads from Clarion and Jefferson counties met at the river, and on which merchandise, brought up by steamers, was carried in large quantities. This extension added largely to the business and revenue of the road.

But the extension of the road to the oil regions—an interest which did not exist at the time the road was first projected—was an object worthy of special effort. Mr. Phillips laid the matter before the capitalists of this city, who responded promptly and generously to his appeal; the required stock was taken and the work between Mahoning and Oil City was pushed forward rapidly and completed nearly a year ago.

The old portion of the road below Kittanning was laid upon the earth without ballast; but it is now in pretty good order. Above Kittanning the road bed was thoroughly ballasted before the ties were laid down, so that in point of solidity it compares favorably with the Pennsylvania Central.

Nearly the whole distance, especially above Kittanning, the road runs close to the bank of the river. In fact above that point there are but few "bottoms" of any considerable width; and in many places the hills, which are steep and heavily covered with timber, crowd close to the river on both sides. The scenery is extremely variable and picturesque as the train moves rapidly forward. There is no road, probably, on this side of the mountains on which admirers of the beauties of nature can find so much gratification; and none where those who are fond of a good dinner can be better accommodated than at Emlenton going up, and at the beautiful dining saloon of Mr. Robert Thompson, a little below the mouth of the Mahoning, coming down, on the daylight trains.

There are many objects of interest on this road all the way along. I shall only make brief mention of some beyond the mouth of the Mahoning, which is itself an important point; for here the great branch which will ere long unite this road with the Philadelphia and Erie road will come in. There is very little available ground,—perhaps not more than four or five acres—and already it is very much crowded. On the opposite side of the river, however, there is a beautiful site for a large town; and were a bridge erected, the little triangle at the Mahoning could be given up exclusively to business purposes.

Ten miles further up the road crosses the Redbank, a large navigable stream out of which large quantities of lumber are brought. Rafts and flatboats descend it nearly one hundred miles. Here, only a few yards from the road, is Redbank Furnace, a large, well appointed and successful establishment.

Six or seven miles further up, but on the opposite side of the river are the works of the Brady's Bend Iron Company, devoted exclusively to the manufacture of rails. The rolling mills, warehouses, &c., are on the bank of the river, in full view from the road. The furnaces are about three-fourths of a mile up a small stream called Sugar Creek, and are not in sight from the road. In this view dinginess, ruggedness and sylvan beauty are singularly commingled. These works are at the western sweep of the great curve known as Brady's Bend, so called after a bold rover, whose life work was a warfare with the savages who roamed over those hills and valleys in his day. A bridge across the river will soon be built at these works.

Some twelve or fifteen miles further on we reach Parker's Landing, near the old and dilapidated town of Lawrenceburg, on the opposite side of the river. Here we see the first successful oil wells. A little shed or house, a little engine, a rude walking-beam moving leisurely up and down, like a man working by the day, a few greasy pipes, and a tank or two, and you have the entire establishment. These wells produce from three to twenty barrels per day, and are called "pumping wells." A flowing well is still simpler in its apparatus—nothing but a well and pipe and tank.

From Parker's Landing onward the passenger sees any quantity of derricks, each indicating that a deep hole has been drilled through the rocks; but a large majority of them stand there silent and sad monuments of disappointed hopes. Still there are many wells on both sides of the river between Parker's Landing and Oil City which are paying well. Some of them are so near to the road that the passenger might touch parts of the apparatus with his hand. At a place called Scrubgrass, about midway between Parker's and Oil City there are many "paying wells," but I gathered no statistics.

About two miles above Parker's the road crosses the mouth of the Clarion river, the longest and largest tributary of the Allegheny and a great lumbering stream. Three miles further the road passes through the thriving town of Emlenton, where we took dinner going up, and a very good one. Here the river is so narrow that the bridge has but one pier and two spans of ordinary length, formed of arches of timber. The bridges at Franklin and Oil City are nearly or quite double the length.

A short distance above Scrubgrass we passed a burning well. It is on a low piece of ground only a few feet from the road, and has been flaming without intermission for several years. The well emits only gas, which burns with a clear, fierce, broad, dashing flame, often rising to the height of twelve feet. It makes no smoke. Last spring the flood in the river overflowed the ground from which the gas issues to the depth of four or five feet; but it made no difference—the flame continued to burn with unabated volume on the surface of the water; and as it receded the flame followed it down until it again rested upon the glowing gravel. When I first saw it the sun was shining, but the flame was bright. As I returned the day was overcast and gloomy, and of course it was still brighter—about the same as the flame of a common gas jet.

Some fifteen or sixteen miles northeast of Oil City there is another burning well, greatly exceeding the one of which I have just spoken. The gas rushes up with great force, and drives water with it, which is scattered in spray for a considerable distance around. The flame rises to the height of sixty feet. I did not see this, but had a graphic description of it from a gentleman I met at Venango City. On dark nights in the winter season, when the ground is covered with snow and the surrounding hemlocks are loaded with millions of icicles, formed by the spray which the gas throws up, the scene illuminated by this monster gas light is wondrously magnificent. This, if I remember aright, has been burning nearly two years.

Oil City has been so often described that I need not say much about it. It is crowded in under one hill, and perched upon another, called Cottage Hill, with Oil Creek running between, which is crossed by two bridges, one for the railroad which connects it with Franklin, and another very neat iron bridge higher up for ordinary purposes. The lower town is crowded to excess, and is the seat of a very considerable business. Cottage Hill looks like a pleasant place for residences, with which it is covered. Venango City, on the south side of the river, as it is called there—but the east side as we generally express it—is beautifully situated on an easy slope, wide enough for five streets parallel with the river, and long enough for five times as many cross streets. The population is now between one and two thousand; but there is room enough for a hundred thousand, if there was business to sustain them. A good bridge across the Allegheny connects the two cities.

I stopped at Franklin a few hours on my way up. I had not been there for about thirty-five years. It was then a poor little town on the bank of French Creek, about half a mile above the mouth, with a population of less than a thousand. Now it is a city in which they claim to have a population of over ten thousand, extending down the river half a mile below the mouth of French Creek. The location is very pretty, and on every hand we see evidences of business, wealth and taste.

I did not stop at Kittanning, for as it had been raining, and as I had no special business, I felt no inclination to walk half a mile through the mud to reach a paved street across which we had already run. If the people there had been resolved to kill their town they could not have taken a readier way than to allow their station to be located where it is.

I might speak of many other things, but I have already exceeded the limits I had prescribed to myself. I think the Allegheny Valley Railroad is the most pleasant and interesting road we have upon which to make an excursion, for there are so many objects of curiosity, and such a variety of natural scenery—truly romantic, if not grand.

A Democratic Opinion of Methodism.

The Democracy, through their widest spread journal, the La Crosse Democrat, sendeth greetings to the Methodists of the country. The occasion is the assembling of the Quadrennial Conference at Chicago, and the infamous document reads:

There is now in session in the city of Chicago, a nondescript, black-and-tan, rump Radical, politico-religious mob, known as the Quadrennial Conference of the Methodist Church. It is convened nominally in the interests of the Methodist denomination, but really in the interests of the mongrel party, and with an eye to the interests of Grant, who is a candidate of the Methodists. It will remain in session until after the Chicago Convention, and will add its nasal whine to the chorus of damnabble discords that will hail the nomination of the azure-backed butcher. It is engineered by the infamous Simpson, Methodist Bishop of Philadelphia, who, in collusion with Gen. Howard, the other reverend ruffian of the Freedmen's Bureau, took possession of twelve hundred churches belonging to the Methodist Church South, and turned them over to the niggers and convict preachers of the North.

* * * * * * *

Roost high, oh ye feathered beasts, for the chicken eaters are come up to the great city.

Guard well the back doors to your gin-mills, oh ye dispensers of benzine, for the throats that are enveloped in white chokers are often athirst.

Look well to your four-footed beasts, ye that keep livery stables, for horse flesh hath ever a powerful attraction for the Methodist deacon.

Look well to your wallets, oh ye who travel in the street cars, lest ye lose the lovely patches of ragged paper that have symbolized money ever since the time that these nice shepherds have furnished inspiration for the political machine.

Look well to your mustard cups and spoons of shoddy silver, oh ye maidens who doth dispense the juice of the hop, for the bible banger doth delight to labor with the nymphs, who are profanely called beer-jerkers, and the pockets of the brethren are capacious.

Mount a two-barrel gun within range of your clothes line, oh, ye that have much raiment, for the colporteurs have a weakness for square tailed shirts and embroidered under clothes.

Place none but tried men on guard to-night, oh, ye who set up free lunches for your patrons, for the hymn squawkers do go for all things which are free.

Guard well your watch tower, oh, ye publicans of high and low degree, for in beating landlords a Methodist circuit-rider can double discount the "oldest inhabitants."

And, oh, ye unsuspecting Methodist brethren of Chicago, hearken to our warning, and go mighty slow on your itinerant brethren from the country, for they will reneague on you the first deal.

Brethren let us pray.

What a Fall!

For five years Chief Justice Chase has been regarded as a leader of the Racical wing of the Republican party. Only a year ago he was traveling about the South, addressing audiences of white loyalists and negroes, in advance of Congressional reconstruction and universal suffrage. The chief organs of the most advanced wing of the party at the North almost adopted him as their patron saint—certainly they considered him the foremost statesman of the country, and the one who would most fitly adorn the Presidential chair. To-day the Chief Justice is cheek by jowl with the Democracy, who have derided and maligned him during all his political life. He enjoys the unenviable distinction and bad eminence of having done more than any other man to thwart the will of the people, and secure Andrew Johnson in his forfeited office. And—drunk with insane ambition—he even conspires to disorganize the Party of Freedom and Progress, and build upon its ruins another organization, which shall advance him to the goal upon which his eager eyes have so long been fixed. It is given out to-day that the Chief Justice, while he does not seek the Presidency, is in the hands of his friends, and will accept a nomination, if it is tendered to him by the Conservatives! As if every act of his career for two years past has not been part of an earnest struggle to achieve the White House. As if it is possible to find any other explanation for his betrayal of Party and of Principle. Was ever such a humiliating spectacle presented in our politics before? Was ever the judicial ermine draggled in dirty pool of politics. The name of Roger B. Taney, heretofore conspicuously infamous, will become respectable by comparison with that of Salmon P. Chase. But the conspiracy will fail.—Albany Evc. Journal.

MR. JAMES B. EADS, the engineer of the St. Louis bridge, has a report prepared for publication, in which he shows the safety and practicability of five-hundred-feet spans, and that there are sufficient engineering for such spans. The Kuilinburg bridge in Holland has a truss span of five hundred and fifteen feet. It has a double railway track, and the truss, which is partly of steel, weighs over two thousand three hundred tuns. Mr. Eads says that it is reasonable to assert that it is not impracticable to throw a single arch of cast steel, two thousand feet in length, across the Mississippi. The achievement would be simply one of money.

TO GLASS MANUFACTURERS.—The undersigned having secured the sole Agency for the sale of the celebrated

KEY POT CLAY.

Are now prepared to furnish it in any quantity to those wishing to procure this superior article. During fifteen years' use of this Clay, we have arrived at such proportions as we believe makes it a better article for pots than any in the market, we having secured an average stand of SIX, EIGHT and TEN months. We will furnish receipts for the proportion of the mixture of this Clay to persons purchasing. The Clay is ground and moulded in lumps for delivery.

Financial Matters in New York.

Gold Closed at 140¼.

(By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)

NEW YORK, May 26, 1868.

MONEY AND GOLD.

Money easy at 4@5 per cent.; transactions to Government dealers at 3 per cent. Prime paper wanted at 6@7. Sterling firm, at 10@10¼ for prime bills. Gold firm, closing at 140¼. Shipments to-day $420,000; that of to-morrow will be about $170,000. Loans made at 1@3 per cent. for carrying and flat for borrowing. The conversions of 7-30's were heavy to-day, reaching $5,824,800. The Treasury sold no gold and bought no 7-30's.

GOVERNMENTS

strong and active. Henry Clews & Co. furnish the annexed 4:30 quotations: Coupons 1881, 115¾@115½; do. '62, 110¾@110¾; do. '64, 108¾@109; do. '65, 109@109¼; do. new, 111@111¼; do. '67, 111¼@111¼; 10-40s, 105¾@105¾; 7-30s, 108¾@108¾.

STOCKS.

The great feature on the Stock Exchange was the mercurial course of Pacific Mail, which, under active demand, suddenly rose to 93¾ and as suddenly fell off 3 per cent. The railway market is buoyant and higher, though the closing quotations are hardly at the highest point. There is considerable short interest in many shares, which sustains the market. Border State bonds are in active demand, though there are few offerings and prices are higher.

Following are the 5-30 quotations: Canton 48¼@50¼; Cumberland 35a35¼; Wells Express 24¾@25; American 55@55¼; Adams 57¾@57½; United States 57@57¼; Merchants Union 27@27¼; Quicksilver 30¼@30¾; Mariposa 5@5¾; Pacific Mail 90@90½; Atlantic 33@35; Western Union Telegraph 38¼@38¾; New York Central 133¼@133¾; Erie 70¾@70¾; Erie preferred 76@76½; Hudson, 140@140¼; Harlem, 124; Reading, 94¼@94¾; Ohio and Mississippi, 30¾@31; Wabash, 50¾@50½; St. Paul 66¼@66¾; preferred at 68@68¼; Michigan Central, 119@119½; Michigan Southern, 87¾@87½; Illinois Central, 148@148¼; Pittsburg, 88¼@88½; Toledo, 109½@109¾; Rock Island, 69@69¼; preferred, 89@89¾; Fort Wayne, 111¼@112¾; Hartford and Erie 15@15¼; Terre Haute 48; preferred, 68¾; Hannibal and St. Joseph, preferred, 68¼; Missouri, Old Tennessee, 60¼; New do. 67½.

RIVER NEWS.

Both rivers continue to recede steadily at this point with five feet in the Monongahela, and six feet in the Alleghenv. The weather continues warm and cloudy, though last evening it was clear and apparently settled.

The Wauanita arrived from Omaha on Monday night, the first arrival from that point this season. She had a very good trip.

The J. N. McCullough passed Parkersburg yesterday forenoon, and will, if she is not detained by fog, arrive here about nine o'clock this morning. She returns as usual to-morrow at noon.

The Emma No. 3 departed for St. Louis yesterday with all the freight she could take on boat and barge, about 500 tons. She left here drawing about four feet ten inches—pilots, John Moore and Thomas Greenlee.

The Argosy, Capt. Vandergrift, is the regular packet for Cincinnati to-day, leaving promptly at noon. She is a neat and reliable packet, and will go through on time. Mr. W. H. Scott still retains charge of the office.

The Lorena, from St. Louis, was due last night, and will doubtless be found in port this morning.

Owing to the low stage of water the Allegheny river packets have been obliged to lie up for the present.

Capt. Frank Marratta, of the Cincinnati and New Orleans packet Alice Dean, was in the city yesterday.

The steamer Gallatin, Captain Doyle Bougher, which left the Brownsville wharf yesterday evening, when passing over Braddock's Upper Ripple, about midway between Dam No. 2 and Mckeesport, struck a snag and sunk in a short time thereafter. The steamer Elisha Bennett, which happened in the vicinity at the time of the accident, rendered valuable assistance to the Gallatin, and she was finally beached. The Gallatin lies in about five feet water, and she will be speedily raised and put into service again. She was built about eight years since.

The Leni Leoti, en route from Pittsburgh to Fort Benton, arrived at St. Joseph on Saturday last.

The Kate Putnam and Silver Cloud were advertised to leave St. Louis for Pittsburgh on Saturday.

The following towboats are laid up at Cincinnati: Alice Dean, Alaska, Anna, Cora S, Shamrock, Emma Floyd, Silver Moon, Abeona, Argosy, (Scneck's), Edinburg and St. James, were at the wharf last evening; and the Swallow, J. H. Groesbeck, G. A. Thompson and Ezra Porter.

The New Albany Commercial, of Saturday, says: The unusual dullness of times on the river has induced a large number of our river men to engage in business of one kind or another on shore—grocery keeping, the dry goods trade, manfactures and other branches of business receiving large accessions from the steamboatmen. There is little in the immediate future, as we can see, to encourage steamboatmen to continue in the business. The competition between river and railroad transportation, and competing river lines of steamers, has cut down freght rates to starvation prices, and it is very doubtful if a single boat running in the Louisville and New Orleans trade is making more than its expenses. Many of them are actually losing money, and in no very small quantities.

Captains Ford and Clark of the tug Nettie Jones, who claim to have saved the steamer Milbrey from destruction by fire recently at Memphis, have put in a claim for salvage.

A lot of flour was recently shipped from St. Louis by river to New Orleans, and there reshipped for New York, arriving at its destinotion in sixteen days. The New York Times says that "if our through railroad companies do not pay more attention to their roads and less to the stock market, they will find formidable rivals starting up in the transportation line."

We clip the following items from the Cincinnati Gazette, of Monday: Mrs. Perry, widow of Captain Samuel Perry, deceased, and grandmother of Wm. Pendleton, at present pilot on the Westmoreland, which boat left New Orleans for Cincinnati on Tuesday, died at Newport yesterday morning. She must have been about 70 years of age.

Capt. H. G. McComas, of New Orleans, who was a passenger up on the Dexter, to Louisville, left for Pittsburgh yesterday on the J. N. McCullough.

The Alice V. and Kate Robinson, en route from St. Louis to Pittsburgh, and the Armenia, en route from Pittsburgh to St. Louis, were at Cairo on Sunday.

The following letter, clipped from the St. Louis Democrat, concerning the barge system, is worthy of the attention of capitalists, and the perusal of all steamboatmen. The letter is addressed to J. E. Elder, Esq., of St. Louis:

NEW ORLEANS, LA., May 13, 1863—Dear Brother:—I note your remarks about the action of some of the members of your Chamber of Commerce on the barge interest, and will be glad to receiving a copy of their proceedings. I am thoroughly satisfied that the 'whole' prosperity of St. Louis and New Orleans are entirely bound up in that system of freighting. If you draw the grain to your city, even if it passes by without 'breaking cargo,' the producer will naturally follow his products to purchase his supplies, and you will divert an immense trade from Chicago, Milwaukee and eastern cities, because the returning barges will bring you foreign and Southern products at proportionately low figures. If salt were imported here in bulk and 'elevated' into barges, you would receive it so cheap you could eventually supply lake portt to a considerable extent; and if barges were constructed with proper tanks, molasses would be pumped into them at our plantations, or from vessels from the islands similarly prepared with tanks, which could be so constructed to carry grain also in the same tanks. If this plan is feasible, it would be a great saving in packages, leakage, fermentation, labor, freight, &c., and would lead to an immense traffic boih ways. I think a little ingenuity and capital would readily develop such a mode of transit and traffic. Certainly if St. Louis could once establish her supremacy as the mart for these two articles, all other trade would center around her. As heretofore mentioned to you, my idea full success would be reached when every man of a few hundred dollars could own a freight barge and have his own family aboard, and 'follow the business for a living.' As our schooners and small crafts are owned and managed, so long as the business is confined to capitalists and monopolies, we shall not reach the point of low 'freights' that we require. We want a 'river population' who will know no other mode of life; and we can then laugh at railroads and canals; whenever this barge and towage system becomes more in practice, then will the thousands of tuns of products interchange by the e xtremes of the rivers, that are now entirely neglected. Our early garden and field products and fruits would be sent to you, and in course of seasons yours would be sent to us. I was at the ice-works yesterday, and they were turning out ice by the tun. I could not help thinking how easy it would be to put one of those machines on a barge, and keep the air up to any temperature required, to preserve fish, oysters and other perishables, whilst being transported to distant markets. Indeed, the convenience of transportation by barges would lead to endless interchanges which are now prevented, by having your motive power attached to costly passenger boats, that can not afford to lay still whilst loading and unloading bulk articles. How much Pittsburgh coal could we afford to consnme if it was transported to us in costly passenger steamers?

THOMAS S. ELDER."

CITY OF PITTSBURGH WATER LOAN.

PROPOSALS FOR

OF THE

Bonds of the "Water Extension Loan,"

Will be received at the office of the CITY CONTROLLER, Fourth street.

These are COUPON BONDS, bearing interest at the rate of SEVEN PER CENT. per annum, payable semi-annually, at the office of the City Treasurer, and the Bonds are to be paid off in twenty-five years from April 1, 1868.

By Act of Assembly the Revenue of the Water Works is pledged for the payment of the Bonds and Coupons, and the latter are by law made receivable for Water Rents, and the Act authorizing the Loan creates a SINKING FUND of not less than two per cent. of all bonds which may have been issued in pursuance of said Act. The Councils are bound to appropriate annually a sufficient sum for interest, and not less than two per cent. of all bonds which may have issued to go into the Sinking Fund.

The proceeds of these Bonds can only be used for the extension and improvement of the City Water Works, which will increase the revenue, while at present it is far greater than is required to insure the payment of interest and retirement of the Bonds.

The Bonds are EXEMPT FROM STATE, COUNTY and CITY TAX, which, together with all the foregoing advantages, make the Bonds the most desirable security offered to the public.

Bids under par will not be considered.

By order of Finance Committee.

THOMAS STEEL, Controller.

TRUMBULL and Ross are now cultivating Democratic associations at Washington, finding more congenial seats on that side of the house.

THE official notification of the nominations at Chicago will be communicated to Gen. GRANT and Mr. COLFAX on Friday, the 29th, at Washington.

THE annual State Fair is to be held at Harrisburg this year, from September 29th to October 2d. A "horse exposition" is announced as one of its features, for which a course is to be provided.

SECRETARY STANTON, in view of the failure of the Senate to sustain its own resolution declaring his removal an improper proceeding on the part of the President, has relinquished the War Office, delivering his portfolio to Adjutant General TOWNSEND.

WE are informed that Mr. BOKUM, the Tennessee Commissioner of Emigration, will deliver a public address, concerning the natural and political circumstances of that State, in the Diamond, Allegheny City, on Thursday evening at 7½ o'clock. He will interest a large audience.

BY AN adjournment leaving some of the articles undisposed of, Republican Senators have kindly released Mr. JOHNSON from his reported engagement to follow up acquittal with a reconstructed Cabinet and a reversed policy. He remains therefore at liberty to continue operations on his former line.

THE Erie Dispatch has been transferred by B. F. H. LYNN, Esq., to an association of practical men heretofore connected with the journal, who will hereafter conduct it as an independent newspaper. Mr. Lynn, whom we regret to lose from the active duties of the profession, assigns, in his valedictory, private and domestic reasons for his retirement.

OF COURSE STANTON goes out of the War Office, STANBERY again becomes Attorney General and war will be waged upon GRANT, as the proximate results of Senatorial weakness. Whatever else, of political moment, is put down in the summer's programme at the White House, intelligent citizens can freely conjecture. Yet, Congress, which last year interrupted its permanent session with only brief intermissions, is now in a hurry to separate until December.

THE Democracy has for two years paraded its intense hatred of the "military satrapies" in the Southern States. They have an opportunity to evince the sincerity of their protestations by voting for the bill which restores six of these States to the blessings of a civil self-government. This bill has passed the House without the Democratic vote. Mark the number of Democrats who support it in the Senate!

SO FAR as appears MR. THOMAS WILLIAMS has no competitor for the Republican nomination for Congress in the Twenty-third District. In the Allegheny portion of the District no other candidate has been named; nor do we hear of a declared competitor either in Butler or Armstrong.

MR. WILLIAMS has rendered signal service, not solely in consequence of his devotion to Republican principles, but by reason of his great abilities, and it would be most unfortunate, in the present emergency of public affairs, to put a new and untried man in his place.

A FEW Republican journals affect to disbelieve in the truth of recent imputations against the official integrity of the Chief Justice. But none of them attempt to justify their incredulity, except by a vague reliance upon the proprieties of his eminent station, and the popular confidence which, until of late, he was supposed to merit and enjoy. Nor do any of these journals explain why it is that Mr. CHASE stands to-day accepted by the friends of the impeached President, by the offender himself still standing at the bar, by the Democratic party and by its Southern allies, with their marked and unanimous approbation. We have no explanation from tender-hearted Republicans of the mysterious conversion, ten days since, of the howling pack which for twenty years have bayed with unmitigated hate at the heels of Mr. CHASE, into his fulsome eulogists and ardent supporters for elevation to yet higher honors. Why is it that he has suffered himself to be proclaimed as hostile to impeachment, he who constitutionally presides at the still unfinished trial? Why is it that his official rulings have uniformly kept on the side of the accused? Why is it that, even before the last judgment is announced, he avows himself, pendente lite, a popular candidate against the party which, as he declares, has instituted the great suit before him upon insufficient grounds, thus scandalizing the world with the spectacle of a biased and partizan judge? Why is it that this avowed political ambition is so universally recognized that even the criminal before his bar anticipates the complete verdict by an offering of support to promote his ends? What is this but offering a price for justice? And why is the bribe less flagrantly shameful, for being political rather than pecuniary?

There are some things about this business which no sophistry can explain away and no charity can excuse. An unfinished trial; a judge revealing his preferences and consenting to a bribe for his ambition; a criminal not yet acquitted but organizing a party to make the bribe effective; jurors whose complicity in the plot is not attempted to be disproved—these are the great facts which are the scorn of Christendom now and will point the historian's moral in after ages. It was a fatal day for the good name of Mr. CHASE when he suffered his vaulting ambition to trample upon judicial decencies by this premature revelation, and we suggest to tender-hearted Republican apologists that the more the scandal is considered, the more shameful it appears.

COMPETITION AND AFFILIATION.

For some days past the atmosphere hereabouts has been filled with rumors of important negotiations for the consolidation of railways terminating in this city.

1. It was affirmed that the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago Company would absorb the rights and franchises of the Allegheny Valley Company, as a step towards opening a new line to Philadelphia and New York.

2. Soon it was declared that the Allegheny Valley Company, dissatisfied with the offer made by the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago Company, had addressed overtures for sale to the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, and that these overtures would most probably be accepted.

3. The last rumor had it that the Pennsylvania Company and the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago Company were to be consolidated, of course, on terms satisfactory to each.

What truth or falsehood there is in these three reports, or in the various modifications of them which are afloat, we do not know. Each of the Companies whose affairs are thus made matter of speculation or averment is managed by men of superior capacities for business and of unquestioned integrity. It is, therefore, fair to infer that they are engaged in no bargainings, of the kind described, and will be concerned in none, that are not required for the protection or promotion of the interests of the stockholders whom they serve. If the welfare of either two, or of all three, of these Companies draws them together, either for more intimate co-operation or for absolute consolidation, under the laws, we do not apprehend that any amount of clamor by outsiders can avail to prevent or suspend projected arrangements.

In this case, if any body of men are interested to stop the negotiations, what they have to do is to go into the market and buy up a majority of the stock of one or more of these Companies and take the control into their own hands. That is a practical and efficient method. If they prefer to make a new line, under their own management, a Free Railroad Law exists, and whoever desires may put in the required cash and go to work without delay. We contributed our mite freely to procure that law for the accommodation of these people.

Doubtless, railway companies make discriminations in their charges for carrying freight. A prominent and highly intelligent glass manufacturer, established in one of the northeastern counties, called upon us last Monday, and while detailing the results of his explorations in this city, stated that the cost of freight to glass makers here, to and from New York, was absolutely less than he had to pay on the Erie Railroad, between his works and New York—a distance of only 130 miles. This discrimination, in proportion as it contributed to general results, enabled the glass makers here to overcome whatever natural advantage he and others, situated as he is, have of contiguity to New York. This instance belongs to a class of discriminations of which next to nothing is said in this city.

That lower rates are made for long freights to and from Chicago and other western points, than are made for freights to and from this city, eastward, is a fact beyond dispute. Who is answerable for this discrimination? Not a few persons answer that the whole matter is determined by the Pennsylvania Railroad Company. The fact is quite otherwise. That Company does not carry at low rates because it wants to, any more than an iron maker here in Pittsburgh sells his product at a slight advance on cost, from motives of liberality. Neither the iron master nor the railway company regulate the market, but are compelled to adapt their transactions to the market as they find it made up by force of innumerable circumstances. Glance, for a moment, at a few of the causes determining variations in railway changes.

1. Between Chicago and Buffalo or Oswego are interposed natural water-ways. Between Buffalo or Oswego and Albany runs the Erie Canal. From Albany to New York flows the Hudson river. Over this line all commodities can be transported cheaper than by rail. With a few articles, and on all articles at particular periods, the question of speed is paramount to that of cost. In all other cases this great waterway has the advantage, and can and does determine rates for freight during the season of navigation. Sometimes the through produce trade is absolutely monopolized by it. If the railways carry at all, such rates must be made by their managers as will be equal to those made for water carriage, the difference in time being estimated and allowed. If the railways can carry so as to make something, their managers elect to have them employed rather than stand still.

2. From St. Paul the Mississippi flows to New Orleans, where it meets the ocean. Since the closing out of the Rebellion, nature asserts its superiority over art in this direction, and freight is carried to New York, by way of New Orleans, cheaper than overland by rail. The railway companies are constrained to abate charges or let vast amounts of traffic escape them.

But, just here, it is urged that the railway companies should establish uniform rates, doing the business that cannot elude their respective roads at the same rate per ton per mile they accept on business that has a choice of channels. The answer is, that they cannot do this and pay expenses; as every man capable of conducting business for himself can readily ascertain by a little figuring.

3. The different trunk lines, at all times, and especially during the suspension of navigation, compete with each other, just as manufacturers do. Exacting remunerating rates on such business as must inevitably come to them, they constantly make concessions in order to obtain business that has an option of avenues. That this results adversely to business men who have but one outlet, is palpable; but who has wit enough to devise a remedy? If all the railway companies in the country derived their powers from the general government, Congress could interpose and enact a pro rata law. But that would not avail anything during the months the water-ways should be open. If freight should pass between New York and Chicago, by the lakes, and between St. Paul or St. Louis and New York by the river and ocean, at less rates than the railways were compelled to exact, the effect upon trade of intermediate towns, having no access to corresponding water-ways, would be precisely the same as if that freight was actually carried by rail. Practically, the freight might as well go cheaply between any of these points by rail as by water.

For Congress to enact a law regulating the price of freight on the water-ways would be an assumption of authority not to be endured. As well might it enact laws regulating the wages of labor in shops or on farms.

But Congress did not create the railway companies and hence has no authority over them. It can enact no tariff for railway transportation. Nor will the several State Legislatures cooperate to this end; for the plain reason that the people of most of the States are benefited by the competition that now exists, and desire it to increase rather than diminish. The Western States will not patiently listen to the complaints of Pennsylvania and New York on this head; and if they are constrained to hear will not voluntarily forego their advantages derivable from their positions.

We conclude therefore, that it is as impossible to establish uniform rates for transportation throughout the United States as to enforce uniform prices for coal, iron, cloth sugar, beef or pork. Wholesale and retail dealers, in all sorts of goods, will "cut under," when they think their interests require them to do so. This is one of the natural and necessary results of competition. As human nature is constituted, we do not see how competition and its consequences are to be avoided. Nay, we do not see, taking a large view, that it is desirable to get rid of competition, for it is one of the great forces by which human affairs are propelled. Without it, progress would cease, and society stagnate They who declaim most against competition and its natural results, when their interests are touched unpleasantly thereby, are about the last men we have found to discard competition when they can use it to farther their own ends. But, whoever may declaim against it, competition is as inherently and essentially a part of Nature and its ongoings as gravitation or attraction. They who fight against it, are certain, not simply to spend their strength for naught, but to be effectually overcome.

MEDITATIONS AT THE GRAVE.

Impeachment is among the things of the past. It has languished in articulo mortis for nine days and gave up the ghost shortly after noon yesterday. It was a vigorous bantling when in its sound estate, born of a healthy Republican stock, and showing promise of an active and useful life. And why not? For it was the child of many Senatorial fathers, and it was nurtured by the affectionate solicitude of two-thirds of the people's representatives. But the bud of promise has been nipped by an untimely frost. The very rapidity and exuberant vitality of its growth awakened an unnatural jealousy, a most unparental hate among some of its own progenitors, and it owes its coup de grace to the hands of those who first gave it being. The impeachment which six Senators are responsible for initiating has been by their own votes disowned and slain. And there is no hope of its resuscitation; it is very dead and for its respected parentage, for its grace and beauty while on earth and for its hapless fate as the victim of paternal wrath, its gaping wounds appeal to humanity for a Christian burial. This, we regret to say, its murderers have denied it. The corpse which has our pity now will soon excite disgust; its brains are out, the visible embodiment of its life has perished and the earth should hide it. Why is it left unentombed?

We are at a loss to understand the action of the Senate in the reported indefinite adjournment of the trial, after the decisive votes upon three of the articles. There is not the remotest shadow of a hope that any other result can follow upon the eight articles remaining. If it is intended that they shall be kept suspended in terrorem over the President, common sense should tell Senators that they have no terrors for a man whose little finger is stronger than the loins of the violated law, and who, secure in his triumphant combinations, laughs at their impeachment, living or dead. Whether the further vote has been indefinitely postponed, or whether the Court, as such, be finally dissolved, our friends have erred in their judgment. Their duty, to dispose finally and completely of this business, which shameless corruptions and the most faithless treachery have made so wretched, was clearly indicated by every patriotic and political consideration. The country demands an end of the affair, and it is indifferent to either solution, if it shall only come promptly.

Sensible clear-minded men know how to discount the acquittal. They perceive the full length of that mad career upon which the President plunges, without other check than the political expediency which his advisers may consult and which he has the natural chronic habit of disregarding. He is master of the situation, and of the poor tools which have served him and are now to be flung away. They foresee the War office, and through it Reconstruction, submitted to his will, the head of the army driven to the wall, the hopes of Southern restoration baffled, the orderly excitements of the coming canvass fevered, distracted and crazed by the fierce passions of a revived and emboldened rebel desperation, and in the November election day the inauguration of a more perilous strife than any except that which opened at Sumter. Patriots foresee the culmination of the maturing plan to exclude the suffrages of the freedmen, and to hold the issues as decided by white votes alone, which is evidently to-day the game of Mr. JOHNSON and his advisers. For all this, the country has prepared itself and will meet coming issues as it has conquered in the past. Senators may be recreant, but the heart of the Republic beats bravely and loyally ever. "We have whipped them once and we can do it again," said our leader at Belmont, and the words encourage us now.

People already ask if the Chief Justice, that acute lawyer and heartless politician, has suffered his egregiously vain ambition to lead him also into the toils, and down even as far as the infinite degradation of becoming himself, too, the mean instrument of designs which purchase his complicity by tickling his weaknesses, and will trample him in the dust, soiled ermine and all, at the very first symptom of indignant insubordination when he shall discover the double treachery. If the event shall prove—and stranger things may happen in these curious days—that this combination about the White House have used Senators and Chief Justice alike, as the simple and confiding tools of their plot—beguiling the former with childish assurances of patriotic intent in the past and for the future, or with the more corrupt inducements of power, patronage and profit, and amusing the latter with the ambitious hopes springing out of a partizan recognition of negro suffrage—the Republic must come into the final reckoning and it will take an account none the less strict because it has for a while borne quietly with treacheries, usurpations, and criminal encroachments, or because it despises the shallow folly which has so easily led Senators and Judge to their ruin.

Let Senators dig a grave at once for the dead impeachment! Let them make it wide enough to receive also the disembowelled martyrs of the new American hari-kari, the self-murdered Chief Justice and the six of his Senatorial followers. The seven lay dead, politically defunct, by the side of their victim. Make the grave wide enough for all, since the Republic no longer needs them, and deep enough to cover forever their offense to the nostrils of all honest men. We, who are not mourners, have other work to do.

THE APPROBATION with which the resolution of the Chicago Convention, relative to the obligations of the public debt, is welcomed in all quarters and by all parties, is a most significant proof of the wisdom of the declared principle and of its prudent expression. The public creditors are satisfied with its decidedly marked reprobation of all designs to impair the National faith, while even the partizans of Democracy concede the justice of the Republican propositions. The annexed paragraph from the New York World, reprinted by the Pittsburgh Post with an evident concurrence, conveys a very high compliment to this plank in our platform. It says:

"We denounce all attempts at repudiation as a national crime," Mr. Pendleton and those who think with him would endorse this sentiment as heartily as it was cheered in Crosby's Opera House. "And the national honor requires the payment of the public indebtedness in the utmost good faith to all creditors at home and abroad." This is also a sentiment in which the advocates of paying in greenbacks fully concur. In their estimation, good faith would be kept untarnished by paying the debt in accordance with the public engagements, which, they say, do not bind the Government to pay the principal of the debt in coin. Thus far, the declaration means nothing, for it asserts nothing to which all parties do not equally assent. But it concludes in these significant and concessive words: "Not only according to the letter but the spirit of the laws under which it was contracted." Neither is there anything here to which the disciples of Mr. Pendleton would take exception; but there is much to give them encouragement."

THE National Union Republican Committee have sub-divided their duties in the following arrangement:

Central Executive Committee—Wm. Claflin, Chairman; Horace Greeley, Waugh Giddings, R. B. Cowan, T. W. Park, Wm. H. Kemble, and H. H. Starkweather, headquarters at New York.

For the West—J. R. Jones, E. B. Taylor, and Cyrus M. Allen, headquarters at Chicago.

For the South—M. H. Southworth, John H. Caldwell and B. F. Rice, headquarters at Atlanta, Ga.

For the Pacific Coast—Geo. C. Gorham, and Chas. E. De Long, headquarters at San Francisco.

GEN. GRANT is said to be in hourly receipt of telegrams from all quarters, pledging him such a vote as never was given before the re-election of Abraham Lincoln.

Ratifications of the Nominations.

The Baltimore American says: This almost unanimous choice of a free and intelligent people is a high tribute to the worth and ability of the man whose valor is equal to his merit. The crisis of the great social revolution has now been reached. The battles have all been fought. The armies of the Confederacy have been dispersed. The slaves have all been emancipated. The only thing that remains to be done to establish the Government upon the basis of sound republican principles is to establish the equality of all men before the law, in both civil and political rights. Let that principle once become incorporated among the laws of the nation, and the power of the aristocracy will forever be destroyed. Freedom will triumph; Slavery will be exterminated. But in this last hour of the struggle many of the adherents of liberty are inclined to falter. Some hesitate to follow their principles to the logical conclusions. Some have grown weary and faint-hearted. Some are turned away by the corruption that will inevitably creep into the ranks of the party possessed of power. Among all there have hitherto been doubts and forebodings. In such an hour the people have instinctively turned to General Grant as the only man in the whole country who could inspire confidence and carry the nation safely through the crisis.

The New York Times says: The selection of these men as candidates, and the entire absence of anything like intolerance and bitter ultraism from the platform, has brought back to the Republican Party much of its old unity of sentiment, and will inspire it to a renewal of its old enthusiasm. The clouds which a week ago seemed to threaten its future, have already disappeared. The party will make a hearty, zealous and determined struggle, and it will task to the utmost the resources of its opponents to devise any policy or programme of action against it that will promise the slightest chance of success.

The New York Commercial Advertiser (r. w.) says: The feeling which pervades all circles since the Chicago nominations is a happy augury of victory. On 'Change, among merchants, at the Clubs, in the drawing room, on the cars, ferry boats, everywhere, nothing but the warmest expressions of approval with the ticket could be heard yesterday. Wherever Republicans met they enthusiastically shook hands over the nominations and expressed the conviction that under such leaders success was certain. From the enconiums which were showered upon him on all hands yesterday, a foreigner might have inferred that Schuyler Colfax was the "next best friend" to every man, woman and child in the United States, and that in designating him for the second place on the ticket, the Convention had consulted their individual preferences. As for General Grant, the position which he occupies in the affections of his countrymen has long been understood by all foreigners.

A Washington special to the New York Times says:—An interchange of opinion relative to nominations made at Chicago has taken place among Republicans to-day, as the result of which, it may confidently be said that no selection could have been made more generally acceptable. Mr. Wade called on Gen. Grant and Mr. Colfax this morning, and the interviews between these gentlemen were very friendly and cordial. The Ohio Senator says the ticket is a good one and he will give it his hearty support, and has no doubt that it will be elected next fall. This seems to be the common sentiment of all Republicans.

Another special says:—In conversation with a gentleman, to-day, after the arrival of the news of Mr. Colfax's nomination, Gen. Grant said: "Well, Colfax is the most popular man in the country, and the only thing the Democrats can accuse him of is that he is a Republican."

And another remarks:—Colfax is probably the only prominent public man here who has absolutely no personal enemies. His opponents respect him for his general courtesy and fidelity to principle, and frankly admit that their only regret at his nomination is the increased difficulty it will cause them during the Presidential campaign.

BEWARE

CONSUMPTION.

Check and conquer its advances, lest you fall the victim. When attacked with any of its preliminary symptoms, no matter how slight, be on your guard and promptly use the remedy ere too late.

DR. SARGENT'S COUGH SYRUP

Is an old, well tried, certain and standard remedy for Coughs, Colds, Asthma, Croup, Difficulty of Breathing, Pain or Oppression in the Chest or Lungs, and all Diseases of the Pulmonary Organs. Its sure and certain efficacy has been fully tested and endorsed for many years by numbers of well-known citizens in our midst, and their certificates are on record. Have you a cough which has gradually increased from a slight one to one of permanent standing? Lose no time, but procure a bottle of DR. SARGENT'S COUGH SYRUP, which will surely relieve you of the dangerous premonitory symptoms and effect a permanent cure. Do you spend miserable days and long sleepless nights of torture and pain from attacks of Asthma or Difficulty of Breathing? Dr. SARGENT'S Cough Syrup will act promptly, relieve you, and gradually restore you to your freedom of pain, and sound, pleasant sleep. Are your lungs sore and irritated, indicating inflammation? This is one of the most dangerous symptoms, and should be promptly removed. Dr. SARGENT'S Cough Syrup will heal the soreness, allay the inflammation, and restore the lungs to their prestine health and vigor. This Cough Syrup is pleasant and agreeable to take, while powerful and sure in its action. For sale by all Druggists in the country.

NATURE IS THE GREAT PHYSICIAN.

This is now admitted, by the medical profession, as a fundamental principle of healing science. It is wisely provided by the human economy that whenever anything is wrong in the physical system the natural forces of the body are brought to bear to expel the disease. The great aim, therefore, is to strengthen the natural powers. This has been kept in view by the skilful compounders of HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS, which operates to give fresh vitality to all the organs of the body. The effect of this medicine upon the stomach, the liver and the kidneys, is prompt and decisive. The patient, who is wise enough to quit drugging and try the BITTERS, soon feels as if he had taken a new lease of life, and as he continues the use of the article, he is overjoyed to find the streams of health coursing through his frame. It is prepared with great care, and its component parts are entirely vegetable. It is free from the objections so often urged against preparations of the kind. As a medical agent it has no equal, while its pleasing flavor and healthful effects have made it a general favorite. It is free from all properties calculated to impair the system, and its operations are at once mild, soothing and efficient. All who have used HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS attest its virtues and commend it to use. Even those who are in enjoyment of perfect health frequently have need to have recourse to tonics as preventives of disease. We are never too well armed against the assaults of "the ills that flesh is heir to." In health or sickness this tonic cannot be taken regularly without giving vitality and elasticity to the system.

ANOTHER CURE OF DEAFNESS.

I lost my hearing during the last year. Part of the time I was totally deaf. In April of this year I was induced, from an advertisement, to make application to DR. KEYSER, 120 Penn street, Pittsburgh. After having tried various medicines from doctors, without any benefit, I have been under Dr. Keyser's treatment now for nearly two months, and am entirely restored to my hearing, so that I can hear a pin drop. JOHN SCANLAN,
Coal Bluffs, Washington Co., Pa.

ANOTHER CURE.

A man called to-day at Dr. Keyser's office to inform him of a great cure made by his LUNG CURE, or PULMONARY RESTORATIVE. list these cures are made with the Doctor's preparations, he desires it to be distinctly understood that most of his great cures are made in accordance with the established laws that govern the science of medicine, in which he has been engaged for the past twenty-five years. Last week he was also in receipt of a letter from a clergyman in the State of Ohio, detailing another most wonderful cure.

DR. KEYSER'S RESIDENT CONSULTING OFFICE FOR LUNG EXAMINATIONS AND TREATMENT OF CHRONIC DISEASES, No. 120 PENN STREET, FROM 9 A. M. UNTIL 3 P. M.

UNION PACIFIC RAILROAD

Are now finished and in operation. Sixty miles of track have been laid this spring, and the work along the whole line between the Atlantic and Pacific States is being pushed forward more rapidly than ever before. More than twenty thousand men are employed, and it is not impossible that the entire track, from Omaha to Sacramento, will be finished in 1869 instead of 1870. The means provided are ample, and all that energy, men and money can do to secure the completion of this

GREAT NATIONAL WORK,

At the earliest possible day, will be done.

The UNION PACIFIC RAILROAD COMPANY receive:

I.—A GOVERNMENT GRANT of the right of way, and all necessary timber and other materials found along the line of its operations.

II.—A GOVERNMENT GRANT of 12,800 acres of land to the mile, taken in alternate sections on each side of its road. This is on absolute donation, and will be a source of large revenue in the future.

III.—A GOVERNMENT GRANT of United States Thirty-year Bonds, amounting to from $16,000 to $48,000 per mile, according to the difficulties to be surmounted on the various sections to be built. The Government takes a second mortgage as security, and it is expected that not only the interest, but the principal amount may be paid in services rendered by the Company in transporting troops, mails, &c. The interest is now much more than paid in this way, besides securing a great saving in time and money to the Government.

IV.—A GOVERNMENT GRANT of the right to issue its own FIRST MORTGAGE BONDS, to aid in building the road, to the same amount as the U. S. Bonds, issued for the same purpose, and no more. The Government permits the Trustees for the First Mortgage Bondholders to deliver the Bonds to the Company only as the road is completed, and after it has been examined by United States Commissioners and pronounced to be in all respects a first-class Railroad, laid with a heavy T rail, and completely supplied with depots, stations, turnouts, carshops, locomotives, cars, &c.

V.—A CAPITAL STOCK SUBSCRIPTION from the stockholders, of which OVER EIGHT MILLION DOLLARS have been paid in upon the work already done, and which will be increased as the wants of the Company require.

VI.—NET CASH EARNINGS on its Way Business, that already amount to MORE THAN THE INTEREST on the First Mortgage Bonds. These earnings are no indication of the vast through business that must follow the opening of the line to the Pacific, but they certainly prove that upon such a property, costing nearly three times their amount, ARE SECURE BEYOND ANY CONTINGENCY.

FIRST MORTGAGE BONDS

The Company have abundant means in their treasury, and make no appeal to the public to purchase their Bonds, as the daily subscriptions are entirely satisfactory; but they submit that, for entire security and liberal returns, there is certainly no better investment in the market.

The Union Pacific Bonds are for $1,000 each, and have coupons attached. They have thirty years to run, and bear annual interest, payable on the first days of January and July, at the Company's Office in the City of New York, at the rate of six per cent. in gold. The Principal is payable in gold at maturity. At the present rate of gold, these bonds pay an annual income on their cost of

NEARLY NINE PER CENT.,

AND IT IS BELIEVED THAT THEY WILL SOON BE AT A PREMIUM.

The Company reserve the right to advance the price of their bonds to a rate above par at any time, and will not fill any orders or receive any subscriptions on which the money has not been actually paid at the Company's office before the time of such advance.

Parties subscribing will remit the par value of the bonds and the accrued interest in currency at the rate of six per cent. per annum, from the date on which the last coupon was paid. Subscriptions will be received in Pittsburgh by

JAMES T. BRADY & Co., corner of Wood and Fourth Streets;

HART, CAUGHEY & Co., corner of Wood and Third Streets;

S. McCLEAN & CO., 75 Fourth Street;

PH. R. MERTZ, corner 5th and Wood Sts.;

ROBINSON BROS., 78 Fourth street;

AND IN NEW YORK

At the Company's Office, No. 20 Nassau Street, and by

JOHN J. CISCO & SON, Bankers, No. 59 Wall Street, and by the Company's advertised agents throughout the United States.

Remittances should be made in drafts or other funds par in New York, and the Bonds will be sent free of charge by return express. Parties subscribing through local agents, will look to them for their safe delivery.

A PAMPHLET AND MAP FOR 1868 has just been published by the Company, giving fuller information than is possible in an advertisement, respecting the Progress of the Work, the Resources of the Country traversed by the Road, the Means for Construction, and the Value of the Bonds, which will be sent free on application at the Company's offices, or to any of the advertised agents.

TO FARMERS.

THE HAY RAKE "WELCOME."

PATENTED 1865 AND 1867.

Is the best Rake made. It will rake heavier hay, carry it farther, load and unload itself easier than any other rake. It is self-operating; a child 8 years old can do the work of a full hand. Hundreds of certificates could be given, one of which is below:

"GIRARD, Erie Co., Pa., July 5, 1867.

"I have used the Welcome Hay Rake, manufactured by W. W. Wallace, Pittsburgh, Pa., and recommend it to farmers. It is good in light and heavy hay; is easy on man and horse; is a complete gleaner of grass and stubble; is simple in construction and easily kept in order.

JOSEPH ARBUCKLE."

All orders directed to 319 Liberty street, Pittsburgh, Pa., or at the works in Columbiana, Ohio, promptly attended to. Sold wholesale and retail by W. W. WALLACE.

Send orders in early, as supply is short.

FOR SALE.

A RIVER BOTTOM FARM OF 76 ACRES, 19 miles from the city, in Elizabeth township, Allegheny county, Pa., on the Youghiogheny river, one-half mile from Elrod's Station, on the Connellsville railroad; near churches, schools, stores, &c., in the flourishing villages of Boston and Green Oak. The improvements are a two-story brick house of six rooms, hall and cellar, a good frame bank barn with stabling underneath, and other outbuildings; a well of good standing water at the door, and several standing springs of water on the farm, and an orchard of 100 trees of selected fruits of apples, cherries, pears, peaches, quinces and grapes. This property being located near the line of railroad, within one hour's ride of the city, makes it very desirable for gardening or a dairy farm; it is also a good and beautiful location for country homes near the city, lying immediately on the river, on the opposite side from the railroad. The West Newton Accommodation and other trains on the railroad afford certain and frequent opportunities of daily communication to and from this city. Will be sold as a whole or in lots of one acre or more, to suit purchasers.

Also, A FARM OF 173 ACRES, situated in St. Clair township, Westmoreland county, Pa., near the line of the Pennsylvania Railroad at Huston Station. The improvements are a two-story frame house, with six rooms and good cellar, a frame bank barn 40 by 60 feet, and other outbuildings. There is on the place a young apple and peach orchard; 120 acres cleared land, divided into fields of convenient size, a large portion of which are well set in clover and timothy; the residue of said tract covered with good timber. It is well watered and underlaid with coal and limestone, and is convenient to churches, schools, stores, mills and blacksmith shops. A real good bargain is offered in this excellent farm; and with it will be sold all the personal property on the premises, consisting of horses, cows, stock cattle, hogs and poultry, harness, gears, wagon, plows, farming implements and household and kitchen furniture. Together will be sold very low and on easy terms, to a responsible purchaser.

Also, a desirable and very fertile Tract of Land of 158 ACRES AND 25 PERCHES, in Elizabeth Tp., Allegheny county, Pa., on the line of the Hempfield railroad, and one and one-half miles from the Connellsville railroad at Suter's Station. On this farm are 40 acres of superior white oak timber, which alone is now worth one-half the price asked for the whole tract. The improvements are a log house, frame barn, good fencing, and an apple orchard of good fruit. It is well watered and underlaid with limestone and flag stone of a superior quality, with stone coal for the use of the farm.

Also, The best FARM in Fairfield township, Westmoreland county, Pa., of 250 ACRES, about six miles south of the Pennsylvania Central railroad at Bolivar Station. The improvements are two large hewed log dwellings; one of the largest and best frame barns in the township; two apple orchards, in good bearing condition; corn crib, wagon-shed and other outbuildings. The whole farm is under high state of cultivation; fencing all in first rate order, and the land of the best quality of limestone soil, about 200 acres of which is cleared and the residue of the tract in good timber, such as white oak, rock oak, hickory, walnut and beech. This property will be sold very cheap and on good terms, as the owner wishes to engage in other business. For particulars enquire of FINANCE AND TRADE.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, TUESDAY, May 26, 1868.

There was a further advance on gold today of ¼ per cent., with a strong market. The government is no longer a seller of gold, which makes it considerably scarce in the market so long as the exports continue in such large amounts. An entire absence of a speculative feeling characterizes the present market. It seems the whole force of the former speculators in gold has centered in the dealings in government bonds, of which there is an enormous business done, and rates still tend upward, but the dealings is entirely confined to Wall street and the banks. How shrewd bank managers and bankers who could borrow all the money they wanted on governments, have not forseen the rise is almost incomprehensible, but Wall street and money dealers are naturally timid as regards prices, when money is as scarce as it was on the first of April last. It was then commonly predicted that a large rise in bonds must take place during the next sixty days following the April settlements, and was also admitted to be correct by monied institutions, and the press. But it should not be overlooked that nearly all the railroad share capital and the bonds of the roads is owned not by capitalists strictly speaking, but by the broker firms of Wall street and their banks pledged simply to men of means as collateral. All these monied institutions are so loaded down with stock of all descriptions that they cannot buy unlimited quantities of governments when the market is low, but have to take back their stock and let the capitalist take the cheap governments until there is a plethora of money again, and the banks and bankers get their hands free. In this way it may be explained why men saw the best chance to make largely on the most approved securities, without apparently availing themselves of it. For this reason we say governments have not yet reached their highest point; neither has gold; all what these gentlemen now want is the complete sale of all the government gold, to enable the Treasury to redeem the currency debt as far as possible and make money plenty. This would be equal to the issue of fifty millions additional currency and a general inflation of prices of stock. Whosoever will then buy will be sure to have a permanent investment, and all the shrewd men of Wall street will get out.

Closing quotations as received by Ph. R. Mertz, were as follows:

Gold, 140¾; U. S. 6's, 1881's, 115¾; 5-20's, 1862, 110¾; 5-20's, 1864, 108⅞; 5-20's, 1865, 109; 10-40's, 105⅝; 5-20's, January and July, '65, 111⅛; 5-20's, January and July, '67, 111⅛; June 7-30's, 108⅝; July 7-30's, 108⅝; May Comp., 1865, 110,-40.

—The New York Tribune, of Monday, says: There is a good demand for Government stocks of all issues. The inquiry for export is quite large, and under the financial statements adopted by the Republican Government at Chicago there is every reason to anticipate a continued increase in the demand for our securities abroad. All who buy them have now additional assurance, if any was needed, that the principal will not be paid in paper money, the interest be reduced, or the national taxation be abated to a degree which would endanger the interest or yield a surplus from which the debt can be paid off quite as fast as its holders desire to see done. The Treasury is fast getting the debt into a position where it will be uniform in character and easy of management. The six per cents., which are now depreciated by the right of payment after five years, are now selling at prices which make it certain that the Government can recall them whenever it is ready to offer a long five per cent. bond in exchange for them. The sooner the present Congress offers a long five per cent. the better. A great many bonds would be exchanged within the next six months. The certificates authorized for the exchange of the compound notes have been exhausted, and between $5,000,000 and $6,000,000 remain uncanceled, and will be paid in currency. Much dissatisfaction is expressed with the decision of Mr. McCulloch, who has ordered that these notes shall be sent to Washington for payment. This forces holders to the expense of express charges and loss of interest, and brokers are charging ¼ per cent. to holders for attending to the business, which barely covers the expense and risk.

CITY COUNCILS.

Interesting Petitions, Remonstrances, &c. —Roads in New Districts—Locust and Forbes Streets to be Opened—The New City Hall Board—Liberty Steam Car Nuisance—Gas and Street Improvements—New Sewers—Our Market Facilities—Meat Inspector's Salary, &c.

A regular monthly meeting of the Cit Councils was held yesterday afternoon in the City Building.

In the Select Branch.

The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved.

Mr. McEwen presented a remonstrance from citizens and property owners in the Sixth Ward protesting against the construction of the Pennsylvania avenue sewer, and asking that it be postponed. They say that the taxation for sewer and other improvements is as much as they can afford to pay.

Referred to the Street Committee.

Mr. Morrow also presented a remonstrance from citizens of the Eighth ward, against the construction of the sewer mentioned. The petitioners say that the sewer is not needed just now and will not benefit them.

Mr. Morrow made a few remarks in favor of the remonstrance and it was similarly referred.

Mr. Cochrane presented a petition from property owners on Mulberry alley, in the Ninth ward, asking that no curbing be put there when the paving is done, as there is no necessity therefor. It appears that in some places four feet under the alley is used for cellar way.

Mr. McClelland suggested that it be referred to the Street Committee with power to act.

It was moved by Mr. McClintock to simply refer.

Mr. McClelland moved to amend by adding "power to act." Carried.

Mr. Gross presented a communication signed by a number of citizens of Liberty township, calling attention to the condition of the avenue leading past Roup's station. It is fifty feet wide and was opened last summer as a township road and partly graded, but left as a whole in an impassable condition. Last fall, in view of opening the road, the Pennsylvania Railroad Company erected a fine station house at Roup's, but the use of it is prevented on account of the condition of the road. A small amount expended would make the avenue one of the best in the city, and the petitioners pray Councils to have the matter attended to.

Referred to the Road Committee.

Mr. Gross, a petition from property owners in East Liberty, asking that obstructions on Washington street be removed, and that it be opened to its full length.

Referred to Road Committee.

Mr. McClelland, petition from the citizens of Ninth ward, praying for the laying of water pipe on Smallman street.

Referred to Water Committee.

Mr. Dickson, petition from property owners on Mechanics street, asking that the street be not paved as petitioned for by others. The petitioners state that it will interfere with and be detrimental to the interests of the manufacturing establishments there, on account of the fact that the change of grade necessary would cause a costly change in the buildings. They further say that the paving is not needed, and that they will keep the street in good order.

Referred to Street Committee.

PITTSBURGH, May 25, 1868.—To the City Councils:—Gentlemen:—The act of Assembly, entitled "An act creating a Board for the erection of a City Hall," approved March 1st, 1867, provides as follows:

"SEC. 3. If at any time a vacancy shall occur in said Board by reason of the refusal of any one of said commissioners to serve, or by death or resignation, or removal from the city, said vacancy shall be filled by said Board, subject to the approval of the City Councils."

Mr. Wm. Holmes, one of the commissioners named in said act, declined to serve, and the Board, at their meeting on the 27th ult., appointed Mr. Richard Hays to fill said vacancy, subject to the approval of Councils. Respectfully submitted,

THOMAS STEEL,
Secretary of Board.

Mr. W. R. Brown moved that the communication be accepted and the election approved.

The motion carried without discussion.

Mr. W. R. Brown, remonstrance from citizens on Chestnut street, Lawrenceville, against the repeal of the ordinance providing for the grading and paving of said street. The ordinance providing for the same was passed by the borough Councils, and the work has already been contracted for and commenced. The petitioners ask that the work be proceeded with to completion.

On motion of Mr. Shipton, after some discussion, referred to the Street Committee, with instructions not to interfere with the completion of the work.

Mr. Shipton presented a petition from citizens and property owners on Liberty street, setting forth grievances existing there by the use of the street by the Pennsylvania railroad, running with locomotives and long trains, sometimes loaded with oils, and sometimes allowing trains to stand on the street and blockade it. The petitioners ask that some steps be taken to relieve them from this most intolerable nuisance. It is signed by nearly all the property owners.

On motion of Mr. Shipton, it was referred to the Railroad Committee in connection with the City Solicitor to report thereon, with a recommendation for a remedy if any is to be had.

Mr. McClintock, petition for water in Lawrenceville. Referred to Water Committee.

Mr. A. M. Brown, petition from Wm. H. McClurg in reference to musical and concert license at public halls, and asking a reduction of the city tax on these entertainments. Referred to the Ordinance Committee.

Mr. Dunn, petition from citizens of the Fifth ward in reference to the nuisance of the obstrucion of Pike and other streets by the Allegheny Railroad Company, and also in the matter of the coke ovens in the same ward. The removal of the same is asked. Referred to the Railroad Committee.

Mr. W. R. Brown presented a petition from Messrs. Bell & Weir, in reference to a bill they hold against the city for a stone wall built by them on Penn street some years ago. It appears that the work was done by order of the City Regulator, in 1865, and on account of a difficulty the bill has never been settled. Referred to the Finance Committee, with power to act.

Mr. Shipton, from the Committee on Gas, presented a report, in substance as follows:

The Gas Committee recommend the erection of street gas lamps in the following places: Five on the right hand side of Centre avenue; two on the south side of Penn street, between Harrison and Clymer; one on the corner of Pasture alley and Elm street; two on the south side of Sixth, between Grant and Smithfield streets; three on Smithfield street, between Sixth and Liberty; three on the south side of Penn street, between Morrison and Clymer; two on Boundary, corner Penn street; one on Logan and Wide alley; three on Liberty, corner Lumber, Carroll and Morton; one on corner Carroll and Smallman streets; one on corner Stanbery and Foster alley; fourteen on Butler street, at the following corners: Turnpike, Wainwright, Dravo, Allen, Pike, St. Mary's, Mill, Covington, Borough, Chestnut, Ewalt, Bellefontaine, Lothrup, and midway between Turnpike and Wainwright; one on east side Pride street, between Locust and Vickroy; one on Wilson and Penn streets; one on Congress, between Webster and Wylie; one on corner Canal and Liberty; one on corner Grant and Washington streets; in all forty-three lamps.

The Committee recommended the removal of the lamps from the west to the east side of Harrison street, at Spring alley, and report adversely to lamps on the corners of Gum street and Beatty alley, and Duquesne way and O'Brien's alley. At a number of places at which lamps are wanted there are no gas mains.

The report was accepted and the lamps ordered to be erected as recommended.

Dr. Gallaher presented a communication from George Fortune, asking the appointment of an Auditor of Accounts of Guardians of the Poor. Accepted and E. F. Jones appointed.

Mr. Phillips presented an ordinance fixing the salary of the Meat Inspector and placing his name on the list of salaried officers, and instructing the Controller to issue warrants for the payment of the salary monthly.

Mr. Phillips moved that the amount be made $1,500 per year.

Mr. Rafferty moved to amend by making it $1,200.

Mr. Phillips said the Inspector was under considerable expense and was required to keep a horse and buggy to visit the stock yards, slaughter houses, &c.

Mr. A. M. Brown and Mr. Ogden spoke in favor of $1,500 as little enough.

Mr. Phillips' motion was carried.

On motion of A. M. Brown the rules were suspended and the ordinance considered, read a third time and finally passed.

Mr. W. R. Brown called for the reading of an ordinance which had passed in the Common branch, prohibiting, or re-enacting an ordinance prohibiting, the erection of wooden buildings.

[The ordinance referred to was not at hand.]

W. N. Ogden was called to the Chair by the President.

When the ordinance providing for the construction of a sewer on Pennsylvania avenue came up from C. C.,

Mr. Morrow moved to non-concur, and that the ordinance be laid over.

Mr. White called for the ayes and nays, saying that the sewer is much needed and it should be constructed at once.

Mr. Morrow called attention to the fact that two numerously signed remonstrances against the sewer had been presented—one remonstrance from the Sixth and the other from the Eighth ward citizens, each side of the avenue.

Mr. White spoke in favor of the sewer, and he did not believe the petition from the Eighth ward was from bona fide property holders and citizens.

Mr. Dickson spoke in favor of the sewer, and said it had been petitioned for and the Street Committee had recommended it.

Mr. Morrow moved further action be suspended for the present. Carried. Common Council adopted the resolution and Select Council laid it over.

The clerk read the report of the Market Committee, as follows:

The Market Committee respectfully report that the citizens are subject to great inconveniences by reason of the want of room in the western market house (second story) to accommodate both buyers and sellers; they ask the consent of Councils to occupy City Hall for market purposes and to construct an iron bridge of single span across Market street of the breadth of twenty feet. The cost of this improvement will be about thirty-five hundred dollars, and it is estimated that the increased revenue derived by the city from this improvement will pay for the cost of construction in twelve months from the time of erection. The report was signed by all the committee and accompanying it was the following:

Resolved, That the report of the Market Committee be accepted, and that they have leave to occupy City Hall, and make the improvement asked for.

Considerable discussion occurred in the matter—Mr. McAuley and Mr. A. M. Brown thinking it should be deferred for a time.

Mr. McEwen and others moved immediate favorable action on the matter.

On motion of Mr. A. M. Brown, the matter was postponed, after the communication had been accepted.

An ordinance creating appropriation No. 24, "Water Extension Loan Bonds," was presented.

It provides: That money received from the sale of bonds issued under the act of Assembly, approved Feb. 8, 1868, entitled "An act to authorize the city of Pittsburgh to borrow money," shall be entered in the Controller's books as the "Water Extension Loan Bonds," and the appropriation shall be No. 24, on which the Controller shall certify. The ordinance was finally passed.

The ordinance providing for a plank road from Hazlewood Station to Squirrel Hill, which was read a second time at a late meeting, was taken up, read a third time and finally passed, with the amendment that the walk be placed on the west side. C. C. non-concurred.

The ordinance providing for the opening of Forbes street was taken up and put on third reading, and finally passed.

Mr. Ogden read a resolution requiring the Street Committee to prepare an ordinance providing that an additional ten per cent. be added to the expense of paving of footwalks where the owners of property abutting on said walks neglect to comply with the law. Read three times and passed.

Mr. Ogden, from the Chair, read a resolution instructing the Ordinance Committee to report an ordinance prohibiting all persons from removing dead animals without a permit from the Meat Inspector.

After some discussion the resolution was, on motion of Mr. Coffin, laid on the table.

The Chair submitted a resolution requesting our Senators and Representatives to have the law relating to travelers and trading by sample licenses amended or modified, for the reason that at present the law is detrimental to the interest of the business of the city and State, and oppressive to a large class of merchants.

Mr. Ogden made some remarks on the subject, showing the injury done to business. Laid over for the present.

Mr. Gallaher offered a resolution instructing the Water Committee to lay the water pipe down Sixth street from its present terminus, opposite Turners' Hall, to Cherry alley; and also to erect a fire plug at the corner of Sixth street and Cherry alley. Referred to the Water Committee.

The matter of the paving tax of Thomas Martin, Bedford street, was again taken up, and on motion of Mr. Kehew, the paper on the subject was referred to the Finance Committee with power to act.

Mr. Ogden read a communication from St. Louis, relative to the cost of steam cess pool cleaners, which, with pipe, cost $800. No action.

The action of Councils in the matter of the report of the viewers on the widening of Diamond alley, west of the Market building, was, on motion of Mr. McAuley, reconsidered and laid over.

Adjourned.

Common Council.

Members present—Messrs. Barton, Berger, Boggs, Brush, Caskey, Carroll, Daub, Davis, Fitzsimmons, Friday, Gerner, Hemphill, Herron, Hillerman, House, Kremer, Mawhinney, Meyer, Moorhead, McCleane, Palmer, Rebman, Reed, Reynolds, Robb, Rosewell, Scott, A., Scott, J. R., Sims, Torley, Verner, Vick, Weldon, Welsh, Zern and President Tomlinson.

The minutes of the session of April 27th were read and approved.

Mr. Fitzsimmons presented a petition from citizens doing business on Liberty street, between Fifth and Ferry streets, asking Councils to repeal the ordinance granting express wagons the right to stand on that portion of the street, as a great annoyance and very injurious to the business of the petitioners.

The petition was referred to the Street Committee.

Mr. Carroll presented an ordinance exempting certain parties from the payment of a vehicle license, as follows:

That no person residing in the townships of Pitt, Oakland, Peebles, Liberty and Collins, shall be made subject to the vehicle license, who were not subject to such license prior to the act of consolidation, and such exemption shall continue until the toll-gates are removed from the several townships.

A motion to suspend the rules was lost.

The ordinance was then laid over under the rules.

Mr. Wilson submitted the following:

I propose starting a self-loading street sweeping apparatus, on Fifth, Wood and other streets, if applicable thereto, and if it should prove a great saving to the city in the cleaning of said streets, to ask a small compensation therefor. J. C. PORTER.

Read and accepted.

Mr. Weldon presented an ordinance providing for the construction of a public sewer on Diamond alley, from the Diamond to Wood street.

Rules suspended and the ordinance passed finally.

Mr. Weldon presented a petition from citizens of the Seventh ward and property owners on Dinwiddie street, asking to have said street put in proper condition for a sewer by filling, with authority to assess the costs on the property abutting.

Read and accepted and the Street Committee instructed to draw up an ordinance.

Mr. Weldon presented a petition for opening Ross street. Referred to the Street Committee.

Mr. Zern, a petition for a gas lamp on Liberty street at Strawberry alley. Referred to the Gas Committee.

Mr. Moorhead presented the following:

Resolved, That the city engineer be instructed to examine whether any person or persons owning or occupying property on the Monongahela river, between the Monongahela wharf and lock No. 1, have encroached upon said river, beyond the water lines established by law, and if so, the extent of said encroachments, and report the fact to the next regular meeting of Councils.

Read three times and passed.

Mr. Brush offered the following:

Resolved, That the Street Committee be and are hereby authorized to notify the citizens to have the water stop-cockpipes, opposite their property, that project above the pavements, sunk to the level of the same, or take such action in the matter as will abate the nuisances. Referred to the Street Committee.

Mr. Herron presented the report of the Committee on Surveys, which was read and accepted.

Mr. Brush, a petition for widening Webster street, between Grant and Seventh streets, making it the same width as above Seventh street, by having the property owners on the north-west side of said street, set apart enough of their lots, as the property owners on the opposite side have done. Referred to the Street Committee.

Mr. Herron presented the following ordinances:

For locating and opening Hill street, from Kirkpatrick to Addison street.

For locating and opening Wainwright street, Lawrenceville, from Lafayette Alley to the Allegheny river.

For locating and opening Liberty Avenue from Wilson street to Centre Avenue.

Read and lain over under the rules.

Mr. McClean, a petition for a plank walk on Pennsylvania Avenue, between Oakland Station and the second toll gate at Neville Station. Referred to Road Committee.

Mr. Gerner, a petition for the opening of Atwood street, Oakland, between Pennsylvania avenue and the river. Referred to Road Committee.

Mr. Davis submitted the following:

WHEREAS, The Allegheny Valley Railroad Company in constructing their road through Collins township destroyed about two miles of a township road, and whereas, it is believed that there was an agreement between the said railroad company and the township that the railroad company should repair the road, therefore,

Resolved, That the Road Committee investigate and report to Councils.

Referred to Road Committee.

The "ordinance to prevent the erection of wooden buildings," amended at a previous meeting, was called up and passed as amended.

Mr. McCleane submitted the report of the Road Committee with the following ordinances:

For opening Lawrence avenue, East Liberty.

For the partial grading of Madison street from Pennsylvania avenue to Forbes street.

The report was accepted and the ordinances were read three times and passed under a suspension of the rules for that purpose.

Mr. Reynolds presented a petition for opening Davidson street, Lawrenceville, from St. Mary and Covington streets. Referred to the Street Committee.

Also, a petition for extending Ewalt street, Lawrenceville, to Davidson street. Referred to Street Committee.

Mr. Weldon, a petition from property holders on Reed, Colwell, Vine, Roberts and Miller streets, asking a change or grade on the same. Referred to Street Committee.

Mr. Gerner, a petition for water pipe along Madison and Tustin streets. Referred to Water Committee.

Mr. Reed, a petition for water pipe on Kirkpatrick street, Seventh ward, from Duncan to Webster street. Referred to Water Committee.

Mr. Carroll presented an ordinance increasing the salary of the Messenger of Councils from $700 to $900 per annum, to take effect from February 1st, 1868. Read three times and passed finally.

Mr. Hillerman, an ordinance for grading, paving and curbing Kirkpatrick street, from Centre avenue to Duncan street. Read three times and passed.

Mr. Welsh offered the following:

Resolved, That the Gas Committee be instructed to have a gass lamp placed on Smallman street, between Baldwin and Wilkins street. Referred to the Gas Committee.

The ordinance establishing the width of Chestnut street, Lawrenceville, laid over in C. C. April 6th, 1868 was taken up and finally passed.

Mr. Rebman presented an ordinance for the grading and paving of Roberts street, from Centre avenue to Reed street. Read three times and passed under a suspension of the rules.

Mr. Mawhinney, a petition from Messrs. Hanauer, Kohen & Co., asking to be relieved from the payment of excessive business tax. Refefred to the Finance Committee.

Mr. Herron presented the following:

To the Honorable the Select and Common Councils:

GENTLEMEN—Your Committee on Surveys beg leave to submit for your consideration the following report:

Soon after organizing they authorized the City Engineer to be engaged in extending the streets of the old city, and in laying out new streets in the districts added to the city by consolidation, and to get up plans of the same, to be submitted to Councils for their approval.

The first and most important matter that engaged their attention was the surveying and laying out of a main avenue from the old city eastwardly to the limits of the present city, making it an extension of Liberty street. Four different routes were surveyed, and after close and careful examination of the matter, they have selected the route as shown by the accompanying plan, and its adoption by Councils is respectfully asked.

The grade will be easy, being only three and a half feet per hundred feet, or about the grade of the Pennsylvania avenue extension, from High to Tunnell streets. The average grade of the Greensburg and Pittsburgh turnpike is five feet per one hundred feet. So the proposed grade for the Liberty street extension will be much easier.

They also submit a plan for the extension of Wainwright street, Lawrenceville, from its present terminus to the Allegheny river; and also a plan for the extension of Hill street, Pitt township; from Charles to Addison street, both of which they ask shall be adopted.

To provide for the opening of the above named streets, ordinances are herewith presented. P. G. HERRON,
Chairman of Survey Committee.

The report was accepted.

Mr. Weldon from the Committee on streets substituted the following report.

To the Honorable, the Select and Common Councils:

GENTLEMEN:—Your Committee on streets, respectfully report the following ordinances, viz:

For opening of Brewery street, from Second to the Monongahela river.

For grading, paving and curbing of Wide alley. Sixth ward, from Logan to Fulton street.

For grading Fairview alley, Lawrenceville.

For opening Erin street, from Bedford Avenue to Webster street; also, for grading, paving and curbing said street, from Bedford to Centre Avenue.

For grading, paving and curbing Liberty street from Carson street to the old city line.

The ordinance referred to this Committee, for the grading, paving and curbing of Roberts street, is herewith returned, and its final passage recommended.

In the matter of the change of grade on Spring alley, from Morton to Clymer street, action for the present is deferred for further examination, and the petition for an iron gutter in front of the Independence Engine House transferred to the Committee on City Property.

Respectfully submitted, etc.

The report was accepted and the ordinances read and laid over under the rules.

Mr. A. Scott presented an ordinance providing for the opening of Washington street, Lawrenceville, from Bellefontaine street to the old borough line eastwardly to the width of 50 feet. Rules suspended and passed finally.

The following ordinances, read and laid over under the rules April 27th, were put upon a third reading and passed finally.

Repealing so much of the ordinance regarding the cleaning of side walks and gutters on Tuesday and Friday of each week, by substituting Wednesday and Saturday, before the hour of 9 A. M.

The grading and paving of Vine Alley from Federal to Washington street.

For grading and paving Townsend street from Wylie to Decatur.

Mr. Zern presented the following petition:

Your petitioners, citizens of the Fifth ward, call the attention of your Honorable bodies to a nuisance long persisted in by the Allegheny Valley Railroad Company, in obstructing the crossing of Pike and O'Hara streets with cars and locomotives, in burning coal on the locomotives, and in the use of Pike street at the crossing aforesaid, for drilling cars. Your petitioners pray that such action may be taken as will abate the nuisance.

Read and referred to the Railroad Committee.

Mr. Reed presented the report of the viewers on the opening of Diamond alley, which was accepted and adopted.

The President submitted bill of Capt. Cooper for hauling dirt, etc., $3. Read and ordered to be charged to the contingent fund.

Mr. Robb presented the following resolution:

Resolved, That the Market Committee have the privilege of occupying City Hall for the purpose of a market room, and that they be authorized to construct an iron bridge across Market street, connecting the eastern and western market houses, of the width of twenty feet. Read three times and passed.

Mr. Herron submitted the following:

Resolved, That the Market Committee be instructed to have all market stands removed from the pavement on Market street, between Fourth and Fifth streets.

Read three times and passed.

Mr. Robb the following:

Resolved, That the Committee having charge of the erection of the new City Hall be respectfully requested to suspend further operations and proceedings with regard to its erection with a view to perfect the plan, so as to provide for a public hall therein.

Read three times and passed.

Councils adjourned.

General Synod of the Reformed Presbyterian Church.

SIXTH DAY—MORNING SESSION.

Synod met at half-past nine o'clock, and was opened with prayer by the Moderator. On motion the reading of the minutes of the last session were dispensed with, owing to the absence of the stated clerk. On motion of Rev. Michael Harshaw, Synod proceeded to the order of the day, the hearing of Rev. Dr. Vincent, delegate from the United Presbyterian General Assembly.

In the absence of Dr. Douglas, who had the credentials of Dr. Vincent, the formality of credentials was dispensed with.

Dr. Vincent then took the floor and addressed Synod. He said:

FATHERS AND BROTHERS:—I have the honor of an appointment by the General Assembly of the United Presbyterian Church of the United States of North America, to greet you in their name. It affords me pleasure to comply with that appointment. When diplomatic relations are established between different nations, there is a promise of mutual advantage, not only because such diplomacy is usually connected with a covenant of peace, but it indicates decided progress towards binding the nations of the world together in one family. We ever hail the establishment of friendly relations with foreign nations as a token for good; a land-mark in the progress of civilization.

In our ecclesiastical relations there is something quite analogous. The Chinese or the Japanese were not more effectually shut up and secluded from the rest of the world than were the different denominations of professing Christians from each other, until near the middle of this present century. A more liberal policy has been inaugurated. We have reciprocated salutations, and this has already mitigated some of the asperities, inseparable from the fact of separate denominational existence, and enabled us to feel some interest in each other's welfare, to wish and pray for each other's prosperity.

Even here, brethren, may we not set up a stone of remembrance and say, "hitherto hath the Lord helped us."

In the discharge of this duty, which for want of a better word we may designate Ecclesiastical Diplomacy, we are forced to an acknowledgment of the fact, that the present state of the Christian Church is abnormal. Documentary Christianity knows nothing of a plurality of separate, independent organizations. The Church as the pillar and ground of the truth is one. The Church against which the gates of Hell are set is one. The bride, the Lamb's wife, is but one. That this divinely constituted organization is riven into innumerable fragments, is an evil of no ordinary magnitude. It is dishonoring to the head of the Church. It is damaging to the Church as a whole, every way, and it grieves the Holy Spirit of God, as all the several members should be joined for a habitation of God through the spirit.

Respecting this whole subject there must be much heresy of the rankest kind entertained, and much sin practically resulting from this heresy.

We simply suggest, that this subject is one of sufficient magnitude to arrest the attention of Christians of all denominations, whether it be an error in dogmatic theology, or a vice resulting from doctrinal error, held and propagated. We certainly have felt it to be our duty to bear testimony against evils of less magnitude.

You, my brethren, will pardon me for referring to the subject of union, so much handled these days. My respect for you forbids referring to it in the way either of argument or exhortation. I am not so presumptuous as to think I could teach you anything on that subject.

I cannot, however, ignore the fact that I stand connected with a union church. That the Associate and Associate Reformed branches of the Presbyterian family did, ten years ago, form an organic union, is a historical fact with which you are well acquainted. I had something to do in bringing about that union, and I am glad, all things considered, that I was enabled to do what I did. Early and deeply indoctrinated in the principles which brought about secession from the Established Church of Scotland in 1733, I believe myself to be in harmony with a covenanted Reformation, for which the Erskines and their co-workers contended.

And whatever ground of difference may have caused the separate organization of the Reformed Presbyterian Church, in 1743, we both stand before the world, for more than a century and a quarter, contending for the same principles of civil liberty, the same ecclesiastical independence, the same opposition to Popery and to Prelacy, and the same opposition to what we regard as defection, on the part of larger Presbyterian denominations both in Europe and in America.

"See that thou lose not the things that thou hast wrought" is the Divine injunction. So also, "Hold fast that thou hast, that no man take thy crown."

No man may back us down from our platform. No man may defraud us of the reproach or the honor, as the case may be, of maintaining a covenanted reformation, the burden which the father laid upon us.

It is a fundamental principle of Protestant faith, that the Scriptures constitute our rule, both of what is to be believed, and what is to be performed. The church has but little discretionary power. Respecting the time and place of urging or relaxing the advocacy of any particular principle, we are directed by indications of Providence. To those who follow in the footsteps of the Renwicks and the Erskines, the opposite of what is frequently found elsewhere, has been the practice. That the principle is opposed or disputed, is not a satisfactory reason why it should be set aside; but the opposition made to any principle of the truth, at any given time or place, is a just measure of the zeal and perseverance, with which that principle should be maintained.

There has always been a vigorously working corps of pseudo-peacemakers in the Church. Men who do not scruple to sacrifice truth for mere temporal advantage.

They have their counterpart in those peace men, with whom we have had much to do in political circles, who continued to plead for peace when rebels were in arms, and because more blatant as rebels were driven into close quarters. They are adepts of charity, too, and are especially careful to trumpet their own praise as more charitable than others, while all the world does know, that it is not excess of charity, but lack of principle which enables them to patronize, and regard with indiscriminate favor, those who are guilty of making defection from the truth, and those who stand steadfast in its maintenance.

Truth is not conventional, nor can its claims be determined by an authenticated computation of the numbers who advocate or stand opposed to it. It is a trust committed to us, and our chartered existence depends on the faithfulness with which it is kept. "Because thou hast kept the word of my patience, I also will keep thee."

Standing where I do, I cannot forego a reference to history and facts in the midst of which we are.

In my early associations the names of John Black and Robert Bruce stand connected with the city of Pittsburgh. On this same plot of ground on which we are assembled, they backed each other up for nearly half a century. They were associated in the Western University, and many who are now leading men, both in Church and State, received their literary training there under their direction.

They were attractive pulpit orators; they were Christian gentlemen of fine classic taste and scholarly attainments. But not to any or all these considerations do they owe the esteem in which they are justly held by the people of this city, and by the faithful within the radius of fifty miles around.

The sound doctrines taught by these men, and the vigorous application of them when society was in a plastic state, secured for Pittsburgh a pre-eminence, in comparison with any and every other city in America, with respect to sound orthodoxy, uncompromising strictness of morality, the high esteem in which the Sabbath is held, and the purity with which Gospel ordinances are administered. The same salutary influence, seasonably exerted, has secured for these fathers an imperishable fame.

The influence exerted by these men in firmly maintaining the peculiarities of the Covenanter and of the Seceder Churches, in their determined adherence to principle, is that to which the Pittsburgher is indebted to-day, more than to his geographical position, for the excellency of his churches and his schools, for his good order, his moral honesty, his industry and thrift, by anvil and loom and mercantile prosperity.

You will pardon this episode. It is sometimes profitable to look back the way our Lord and God has brought us. It sometimes affords direction and encouragement in shaping our course for the time to come.

Respecting our numerical strength, the number and condition of our missions, our working power both at home and abroad, I need say nothing here. The facts and figures pertaining to all our institutions and operations, are before the public, from year to year, in our published minutes.

It is not fulsome, it is not flattery, it would be most unnatural, if it should be otherwise than that brethren related to us by so many ties of endearment, should have a place in our affections. We should, and doubt not, we do "love as brethren." On your behalf we lift up our prayer. And I have appeared before you to-day to give you assurance that "in the name of God the Lord, we wish you to be blessed."

On motion of Dr. McMaster it was resolved that the thanks of the Synod be returned to Dr. Vincent for his address and the Moderator in the name of the Synod convey her reciprocal regards to the delegate.

The Moderator then addressed the delegate and said they hailed with delight any efforts that may be made to bring the two bodies into organic unity. He was thankful for the grand utterances he had gave in regard to the fathers of the Church, who had long since gone to their rest.

At the conclusion of the Moderator's address, Synod resumed the consideration of the resolution pending at the close of the evening session, relating to the suspension of Mr. Geo. H. Stuart for a violation of the law of the church on the subjects of psalmody and communion.

Rev. Michael Harshaw said he believed with those who said this was a matter of life or death with the Synod. He recounted the numerous defections that have taken place in the church within the past few years. We may account a man as disorderly who may not be immoral. He was not an enemy to the brother. He would treat him as a brother and admonish him as a brother. It was a hopeless contest to place one hundred and fifty Psalms against twenty thousand hymns. He would rather take the one hundred and fifty Psalms inspired by God, than the hymns by Moore, and Burns, and others. Fathers from other bodies who had addressed Synod, seemed to place the hymns and Psalms on the same platform.

Synod proceeded to the order of the day, devotional exercises, with the understanding that Mr. Harshaw would have the floor as soon as they were concluded. Rev. W. J. M'Dowell was the Moderator's alternate in conducting the religious exercises. The following gentlemen officiated; Rev. W. P. Shaw, Dr. M'Auley, and Rev. A. R. Gailey.

At the conclusion of the exercises, Mr. Harshaw resumed his speech.

There was a vast amount of chaff, he said; among the few grains of wheat. He had seen it stated that in the large collection of hymns there were only fifty that were orthodox. If it was any credit to the fathers who had been referred to, that they had been covenant breakers and moral perjurers, he had nothing to say! He venerated the old psalms in the present venerable version. One of the delegates from the Old School Presbyterian church claimed that it was their psalm book as well as ours—that it was theirs before it was ours.

Peter Gibson, Esq., (Elder) wanted to give his views on the subject before he voted. He was glad it was brought before the Synod. He was glad they had taken hold of the subject in the high places of the field. He spoke in no feeling of animosity. It was principle and not men he regarded. He was astonished, when on a visit to Scotland, in 1865-6, to read the debates of the Synod that was held in Xenia. It was not in ignorance that these laws were violated. It was in the sight of knowledge. In regard to the psalms, he would be a barren nonenity without them. They have been the consolation of thousands in many lands. What had those done who had left the church, and gone to hymn singing? All the world is not running after them. He did not think they had succeeded according to their expectations.

S. W. B. McLeod, M. D., desired to offer an amendment to the resolution before the house. Mr. Stuart's case is an isolated one. The question was not whether he had sung an evangelical hymn, but whether his course had alienated him from the church.

The time of adjournment was extended for five minutes, to allow Dr. McLeod to present his amendment. It is as follows:

WHEREAS, Mr. Geo. H. Stuart, a member of this Synod, has given that honor and place to human compositions which are due only to the Book of Psalms; has engaged in communion with persons, and in a manner condemned by the church to which he belongs; has very extensively withdrawn his support from this church; has on two occasions in open Synod defied the authority of Synod and challenged official notice thereof; has often thrown or attempted to throw odium and ridicule on our denomination; has distinctly in the opinion of intelligent persons outside as well as among ourselves followed divisive courses, and used his means and influence so to do, and has in the prosecution of his apparent purpose in breaking down the Church, extensively sown discord among brethren, therefore

Resolved, That a Committee of Synod be appointed to confer with Mr. Stuart, and should he pledge himself to the satisfaction of Synod to alter his conduct in these respects, that the disapproval by Synod of his past actions be expressed by the Moderator, and the matter be dismissed. But should he not consent to this, that he be suspended from the exercise of his office and membership until restored by Synod or a Commission thereof.

Synod adjourned to meet at three o'clock this afternoon, Rev. J. F. Hill concluding by prayer.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

Synod met at three o'clock and was opened with prayer by Rev. George Scott, D.D. Minutes of Monday evening and this morning's session were read and approved.

Dr. Wylie's point of order in relation to Dr. McLeod's resolution as being contrary to the Book of Discipline, was decided by the Moderator to be not well taken.

Dr. Wylie appealed from the decision of the Moderator and called for the yeas and nays.

Mr. William Parly hoped the Moderator would state the question, so that Synod might vote intelligently.

The Moderator decided the point on the ground that Dr. McLeod did not appear as a complainer. The Chair was sustained by a vote of 31 to 13. Not voting 7.

Dr. Wylie gave notice of a protest.

Dr. Scott said he would protest and give his reasons. One reason was that the matter had been dsscussed under another resolution.

Elder Matthews presented a substitute for the two papers before the Synod. It is as follows:

Whereas, Mr. George H. Stuart upon his own acknowledgment on the floor of the Synod, has used in the worship of God other songs as the matter of praise than those authorised by this Synod; and, whereas, he has departed from the order of the Church in the matter of communion; therefore,

Resolved, That Mr. Stuart be required to promise conformity hereafter to the usages of our historically venerable Church on these points, and that he receive an admonition from the Moderator.

Resolved, That in case Mr. Stuart will not submit to this mild censure he be suspended from his privileges in the Church and his seat be declared vacant in this Synod.

Synod engaged in devotional exercises for half an hour, Rev. Samuel Young in the chair. The following gentlemen lead in the exercises: Dr. Clarke, Rev. J. H. Cooper and W. P. Shaw.

On motion, the question relating to Mr. George H. Stuart was postponed until this morning at half-past nine o'clock.

SUBJECT OF UNION.

Proceeded to the consideration of the report of the delegates to the National Union Convention. Dr. McLeod read the following as the report of the Committee:

The delegates to the Presbyterian Union Convention respectfully report to Synod the results of said meeting as found in the official minutes contained in the printed pamphlet herewith submitted, page 143, as follows:

BASIS OF UNION.

I. An acknowledgment of the Old and New Testaments to be the inspired Word of God, and the only infallible rule of faith and practice.

II. That in the Union Church, the Westminster Confession of Faith shall be received and adopted, as containing the system of Doctrine taught in the Holy Scriptures; it being understood that this Confession is received in its proper historical that is, the Calvinistic or Reformed sense.

Whilst the Committee recommend the foregoing basis of ductrine, they wish to be understood as recognizing the orthodoxy of the Larger and Shorter Catechisms; of the Heidelberg Catechism; and of the canons of the Synod of Dort.

III. That the United Church shall receive and adopt the Presbyterian form of Government.

IV. The Book of Psalms, which is of Divine inspiration, is well adapted to the state of the Church in all ages and circumstances, and should be used in the worship of God. Therefore, we recommend that a new and faithful version of the Psalms be provided as soon as practicable. But inasmuch as various collections of Psalmody are used in the different Churches, a change in this respect shall not be required.

The delegates themselves being divided in sentiment on the subject, respectfully submit it without further remark to the disposal of Synod.

On motion the different papers and reports read on the subject of union were taken up. Dr. McMaster read the following:

WHEREAS, It appears from the report made by the clerk of Synod that three of the Presbyterian bodies invited to prayer and conference in regard to the terms of union and communion among the various churches of the Presbyterian family respectfully declined the invitation; and whereas, The basis adopted by those who did assemble in Convention is not satisfactory to this Synod, inasmuch as on those points in which it was held the chief obstacles to union lay ground was taken in opposition to the positions held by this Church; and whereas, The Philadelphia Basis is presented as the ultimatum from the principles of which no departure is to be taken, therefore,

Resolved, That this Synod does not consider it expedient, at this time, to appoint the Committee asked for by the Philadelphia Convention to follow up an organic union in this direction at present.

Resolved, That a Committee of six, consisting of three ministers and three ruling elders, be appointed to confer with any similar Committee or Committees that may be appointed by other churches, whose doctrines, order and worship correspond with our own, and agree if possible upon such terms as may secure the organic union of the respective bodies.

Resolved, That the United Presbyterian Assembly and the Reformed Presbyterian Synod be informed of this action and respectively invited to appoint similar committees.

Dr. McMaster sustained the paper in a speech of some length.

Dr. McLeod moved that it be taken up article by article.

The first article having been read, Rev. Thomas Johnston said he was sorry to see that there was no one ready to speak a word for the Philadelphia Convention. The invitation was given by the Synod, and the matter was commenced auspiciously. Now there was nothing but coldness and indifference on the subject.

Mr. Alex. Kerr would like Mr. Johnston to answer whether the law he read yesterday was the violated or not. He contended that the law had been violated, and this is the place to repeal the law if it is too strict.

Rev. Samuel Wylie thought the time would come when the church will be united. It would be becoming in Synod to appoint the Committee.

Rev. Dr. Douglas said there had been much written and spoken about the Philadelphia Convention. Some almost went so far as to say that not a human emotion animated the breasts of those who composed it—that the Holy Spirit was there not in common, but special operation. In short that there was nothing like it since the Holy Ghost came down in Pentecostal baptism on the primitive disciples. He was not willing to go so far as this. There were many things in the Convention which he regretted, still he was willing to say that it was a good Convention—that it would no doubt be productive of great results. It had not, it was true, carried out the original intention of this Synod that issued the call upon which it convened. Partiality may have been shown to larger bodies. Nevertheless he would appoint a committee in accordance with recommendation and give it instructions what to ask. There would be no harm in this. The committee, if instructed, would carry out the instructions. He desired union, and would cultivate it in every direction where there was any prospect of its being obtained.

Synod adjourned to meet at half-past nine o'clock, Rev. J. F. Morton concluding by prayer.

Life Insurance Money Paid.

Among the safe, reliable and prompt Life Insurance Companies of the country prominently stands the Manhattan of New York, which has already won golden place in the estimation of the people. Its affairs are conducted on a careful, systematic plan, and the Company is proverbial for making prompt settlement with the heirs of the assured deceased. To-day we have the following certificate to add to the many already in the possession of the Company, in acknowledgedment of its prompt and honorable dealing:

M'KEESPORT, May 20th, 1867.

J. Y. McLaughlin, Esq., Agent Manhattan Life Insurance Company.

DEAR SIR: Accept my thanks for the prompt and honorable settlement of my claim for the Insurance on the life of my husband who was killed, April 20th, 1868.

MRS. MARY COOK.

The office of the Company for this city is No. 67 Fourth street, in charge of the Agent, J. Y. McLaughlin, Esq., a gentleman who deservedly occupies a high place amongst our representative and fair dealing business men. His acceptance of the agency is sufficient guarantee for the character and responsibility of the Manhattan Company.

Allegheny Diamond Property at Auction.—Positive sale. The lot 65x85 on the north west corner of the Diamond will be sold on Tuesday next at 2 o'clock. See auction sales. A. Leggate, auctioneer.

A Word About Slate as a Roofing Material.

Nothing is of more importance to the builder than a perfect roof, and very generally the slate has been adopted, as it proves much superior to other materials, being water tight, fire proof, handsome in effect, and highly durable. It is almost universally adopted in foreign countries where rich and prolific quarries abound; but it is only within late years that it has been generally used in this country, inasmuch as it was deemed too expensive as a substitute for wood, sheet iron, or gravel roofing. But the experience of others who in times gone by adopted the slate roof, even though it did then cost what was rightly deemed an extravagant sum, has been such as to warrant them in commending it over every other material in the market. With advancement in every other line of trade, the slate dealers have made rapid headway, and at this writing it is regarded by all prudent persons a strict practical economy to roof their houses with slate. The Twin City Slate Manufacturing Company, (J. S. Newmyer, President, G. H. Anderson, Vice President, J. N. Shallenberger, Superintendent, all well-known citizens of Pittsburgh,) whose office is at No. 43 Seventh street, own and quarry the finest slate in this country. Their mines are located in Northumberland county, covering a vast area of land and worked with unusual skill and care. The slate is a beautiful dark blue, unchangeable in color, splits in perfectly smooth plates of any size required, and hardens steadily by exposure to the atmosphere. No slate in the United States is superior to it, in all the qualities essential to a good roof, and we think but little equal to it. It is furnished at the yard in Pittsburgh, costing, with expenses of laying, only about twenty-five per cent. more than a shingle roof.

Since this strong company has been operating and furnishing the market with superior and almost inexhaustible supply, it has forced down the price of slate some three or four dollars per square yard, no inconsiderable reduction. It can be shipped to any point in the west or south at very low rates, either by river or rail, and they can supply any proportion of fancy colored slate required, at a small additional cost. All orders or inquiries will meet a prompt response, if addressed to J. S. Newmyer, No. 43 Seventh street, Pittsburgh, Pa.

Real Estate Transfers.

Larceny.

Thomas Phillips made information before the Mayor yesterday, charging Alfred Meyer with the larceny of seven watches, valued at $75. The prosecutor is one of the firm of Palmer & Phillips, auctioneers, from whom, it is alleged, the watches were stolen. The accused was arrested and a search warrant having been issued, the officers searched his house, but failed to find the watches. The found, however, a silver plated snuff box and several other articles, which were identified by J. C. Vanhook, of the firm of Smithson, Vanhook & McClelland, as having been taken from their store. The snuff box, he states, was stolen, as they had but two of them and had not sold either, but he could not say whether the other articles had been stolen or purchased, and information was made by him against the accused for the larceny of the snuff box. He was committed for a hearing.

The Diamond Front.

The "Diamond Front Grocery" and produce establishment, No. 164 Federal street, Allegheny, is destined to be the leading establishment of its character in our sister city, not on account of its fine appearance, which is nevertheless very attractive, nor in consequence of its being favorably convenient and centrally locality, but because purchasers can be accommodated there in groceries and produce upon the most reasonable terms, and are always sure of getting the very best quality of any article they purchase. There is another cause to which, perhaps, the popularity and rapidly increasing trade of this establishment may be attributed which is its pleasant and agreeable proprietors, Messrs. McBride & George. These gentlemen are both practical business men, and understand fully the wants of the public so far as their business is concerned, and we most cordially reccommend them to the public.

Plumbing and Gas Fitting.

At this season of the year, when all are engaged in repairing, it is sometimes difficult to obtain competent and experienced workmen. This is the case particularly as to plumbing and gas fitting, and it is doubtless a great annoyance to those wanting work done promptly and in good style. To all desiring work in that line, and at short notice and reasonable prices, we would say call at No. 165 Wood street, at the establishment of T. T. Ewens, plumber and gas fitter. Mr. Ewens employs none but the most experienced workmen, and uses the best material, consequently his work is always satisfactory. His charges are reasonable, and he is a pleasant and agreeable man to deal with. Remember the place is T. T. Ewens, 165 Wood street.

The Styles which have thus far made their appearance on our fashionable thoroughfares, the only promenades we have, display a marked improvement over those in vogue last year. We were much pleased with the charming and pretty novelties in the the way of lace goods, embroideries and trimmings, which have just been introduced at the fashionable retail trimming and notion house of W. W. Moorhead, No. 81 Market street. These, together with the full line of straw goods on hand are very pretty, and when more generally introduced will materially change the prevailing styles. Mr. Moorhead derives much just pride in being always amongst the very first to introduce the new styles in this community and his store is already favorably known by all the ladies. His goods are chosen with much care and judgment, and his prices are always reasonable.

Splendid site for a Seminary, Church or charitable institution at auction. The property of Mr. Gallagher on Ohio avenue, Allegheny City, is admirably adapted for purposes named above. The locality is excellent, the lot contains nearly an acre, and the dwelling is easily convertible, the rooms and hall being very large. See advertisement on fifth page by A. Leggate, auctioneer.

The Late Professor Dickson—Monument to be Erected.

The scholars of the High School have contributed to procure a monument, to be erected in Mercer county, over the remains of the late Professor W. W. Dickson, Professor of Mathematics in the Pittsburgh High School. The monument is at the establishment of Mr. John Wilkins, Hand street. It is of most appropriate design, and is constructed of the finest Italian marble. Upon a richly moulded base stands a rectangular disc bearing the inscription:

"WILLIAM W. DICKSON,
First Professor of Mathematics
in Pittsburgh High School.
Born October 19th, 1827.
Died January 18th, 1867.
Erected by his Pupils."

Real Estate Agents.

Messrs. Reed & Tuston, at No. 87 Grant street, are just the men you want when you have any real estate to sell. They are reliable, energetic young men, fair and honest dealers. Their knowledge in the business is unsurpassed. Always wide awake, they possess the gift necessary for good real estate men. Parties leaving property in their hands can find a purchaser if any is to be had. They also deal in all kinds of mortgages, drawing deeds, &c., and their charges are such that a man can afford to give them a trial. Call and see them at their office, No. 87 Grant street.

Howard's Letter That Negley Got Published.

An article appeared in your paper of Tuesday, containing garbled extracts from a letter of Thos. Howard, in which he renounced nativism. Gen. Negley, when he dug up that letter from the files of the Post should have stated that the same was published in the Post twenty years ago. Publishing it as you do, without date, will make the impression that Mr. Howard was recently acting with the Democratic party, whereas Mr. Howard has been a consistent Republican ever since the party was organized.

Mrs. Dr. Lonergan, Physician and Electrician.

Felonious Assault.—John Moore made information before the Mayor, yesterday, charging Edward Ingraham with felonious assault. It appears that a row of some description took place in a house kept by Fanny Splane, on Miltenberger alley, and that the accused shot at the deponent. We were unable to learn the particulars of the affair. A warrant was issued for the arrest of Ingvaham.

Abandonment.—Ellen Leech made information before Alderman James L. Irwin, of Lawrenceville, yesterday, charging her husband George Leech, with deserting her, and refusing to contribute to her support. She alleges that they were married on the 18th day of March, and on the 18th instant he drove her from his home and refused to allow her to return. He was arrested and held for a hearing.

At Bates & Bell's, No. 21 Fifth street, the ladies will find a superb assortment of cloth and silk sacques, walking coats, jackets for spring promenade. The selection of dress goods is likewise admirable, while the lines of housekeeping goods are full and complete. For any and everything in this line we advise a purchasing visit to this establishment. The prices are very reasonable throughout.

A Very Desirable Residence, with Spacious Grounds, in Allegheny City, at Auction.—We again invite public attention to the highly attractive sale on Friday afternoon next, of Mr. Gallagher's residence, on Ohio avenue, Allegheny City. The lot is 122 by 300 feet, with trees and other improvements. See advertisement on first page and visit the premises. A. Leggate, Auctioneer.

Merchants, bankers and others desiring to have meals served at their places of business will do well to confer their orders on Holtzheimer, of the Continental Dining Rooms, Fifth street, next door to the Post-office. His fame as a caterer is universally recognized, while his prices are very reasonable.

No Fire.—The alarm from box 61 about twelve o'clock last night was occasioned by the explosion of a steam drum and scape pipe at Fahnestock's white lead factory, on Liberty street above Harrison. The damage was very slight.

Committed.—Justice Barker, of South Pittsburgh, yesterday committed David Myer for five days, for disorderly conduct, an oath of Jemmiah Myer, his wife, and Charles Freeling, charged with drunkenness, for ten days.

How Can it be Otherwise?—Delicate, rich and delicious in fragrance, lasting and durable in quality, Woodworth's "Flor del Santo," the new Spanish perfume, bids fair to outrival the most noted French perfumes in popularity.

In Trouble Again.—Fanny Splane is again to be before Court. John Moor, yesterday, made information before the Mayor, charging her with keeping a bawdy house. A warrant was issued for her arrest.

Surety of the Peace.—Ellen Leech made information before Alderman Herron, of the Ninth ward, yesterday against her husband George Leech for surety of the peace. He was arrested and held for a hearing.

Hotels fail to supply as tempting bills of fare as those which daily grace the tables of the first-class Continental dining rooms of H. Holtzheimer, Fifth street, next door to the Post Office.

Green Peas, Green Vegetables and everything fresh in the markets served up in first class style at Holtzheimer's Continental Dining Rooms, Fifth street, next door to the Post Office.

At Holtzheimer's Continental Dining Rooms, Fifth street, next door to the Post Office, meals are served up at all hours in the best style, and at most reasonable prices.

See advertisement of pocket-book lost, in Allegheny market, on the 4th page of to-day's paper.

Where to Purchase.

The old and well established Tea Mart of Joseph Robinson, No. 21 Fifth street, is one of the principal houses in the city, and buyers will find an excellent stock of Teas, Coffees, and Spices from which to make their purchases. Mr. Robinson buys direct from the importers instead of purchasing from jobbers, and thereby saves the jobber's profits, in consequence of which he is enabled to sell his goods at a much lower rate than those who do not purchase in this way. He keeps constantly on hand a large assortment of every variety of Teas, Coffees, and Spices, of the very best quality, and sells them at reasonable rates. Mr. Robinson enjoys a high reputation among the business men of the city, and we have not the slightest hesitancy in recommending him to the public as worthy of their patronage.

MARRIED:

MORGAN—DANIELS—On Tuesday evening, May 26th, at the residence of the bride's parents, by Rev. Mr. Young, pastor of the First Baptist Church, Mr. WILLIAM MORGAN, of South Pittsburgh, and Miss EMMA JANE, daughter of H. P. Daniels, Esq., of this city.

[We wish the happy couple joy, happiness and prosperity, and may they never regret the words spoken and responded to which made them man and wife. May their love for each other grow more earnest and deeper as years roll on, and may their path through life be marked with flowers of beauty and contentment, with no interwoven thorns of sorrow and misfortune.]

Corner of Federal.

FOR SALE—HOBOKEN—THE balance of those desirable Lots are now offered at private sale, and any one desirous of fine building sites would do well to make a selection. The village is located on a beautiful and healthy spot, two and a half miles from Sharpsburg, on the Western Pennsylvania Railroad, which runs through it, making it much more valuable and agreeable. Extensive preparations are now making for erecting a number of fine houses, which will prove an ornament to the town. The remainder of these Lots will be sold at very reasonable rates and on terms exceedingly easy. SILL & SHUTTERLY, Real Estate and Insurance Agents, Lawrenceville.
